20.01.2005 to the respondent authority for regularization of their services. But nothing has been done till date and having no other alternative the applicants have approached before this tribunal for justice.

A copy of legal notice dated 20.01.2005 is annexed hereto and marked as Annexure: - P.

- (16) That the applicants apprehends that they may be terminated at any moment and recruit some new persons by depriving them of their regularization of service in their respective post. They have worked more than 240 days in a year and have been working continuously more than 3 years since joining in the service. They have been recruited in following proper procedure and entitled to be regularized in their respective substantive post. They have been in due process of regularization of their services and verge of being regularization of their service. If the applicants are terminated from their services they would suffer irreparable loss and injury. It is a fit case where the Hon'ble Tribunal may interfere and direct the respondent authority to regularize the service of the applicants without further delay.

VII. Grounds for Legal Provision: -

Being highly aggrieved by the action of the respondents, the applicants prefer this application on the following amongs other grounds: -

- (a) For that the applicants are working continuously for a long time and that they are entitled to be regularized in the posts in which they are appointed. But the respondents have whimsically deprived them their due entitlement.

बिजराहाकर

Bal Raho dur jang

- (b) For that due process for regularization of the services of the applicants were initiated by the respondents, but suddenly for no valid reasons, the same was discontinued and steps are being taken to recruit fresh candidates in the posts held by the applicants. The action of the respondents have frustrated the legitimate expectation of the applicants who have been continuously working for so long with the hope that their services would be regularized. Thus the action of the respondents have put the future of the applicants in total uncertainty causing severe hardship to them.
- (c) For that the applicants have been continuously working under
- the impression given to them that they would be regularized in due course, although their initial appointment was on contract basis, extended from time to time. But the respondents arbitrarily deprived they applicants from regularization of their services and initiated steps to disengage them by filling up the posts with new candidates. The action of the respondents is violative of Art. 14 and 16 of the Constitution of India.
- (d) For that the action of the respondents deprived the applicants from a decent means of livelihood and the same is violative of Art 21 of the Constitution of India.

VIII. Details of the remedies exhausted: -

That the applicants submitted several representations and legal notice dated 20.01.2005 but nothing has been done till date and no communication has received from the respondents authority.
