Respondent No. 3 : The State of Tripura, through the Chief Secretary, Govt of Tripura, AGARTALA;
and

Respondent No. 4 : The State of Manipur, through the Chief Secretary, Govt. of Manipur, IMPHAL.

3. LIMITATION

The question of limitation does not arise as the matter has been in a continuous process since filing of the Original Application with the Hon'ble Central Administrative Tribunal, Guwahati, which was registered there under no. 231/2000 and disposed of with certain Direction to the Respondents (Annexure - I ) and the Petitioner has been still trying to be granted the reliefs directed to be given by the Hon'ble Tribunal. The Petitioner cannot be treated as indolent.

( 3 )

4. COURT FEES, ETC.

Court Fee Stamps for Rs. 10/- (Rupees Ten) only are affixed to the instant Petition and an Indian Postal order for Rs. 100/- (Rupees One hundred) only in favour of the Registrar is also enclosed.

5. NON-ENGAGEMENT OF A LAWYER

The Petitioner does not have the financial capability of engaging a Lawyer. The case is very simple. Some reliefs were directed to be given to the Petitioner by the Hon'ble Tribunal more than 4 (four) years ago (Annexure- I ). Despite the Direction of the Hon'ble Tribunal, the Respondents are not yet reacting. They never appealed against such Direction. To show that the Respondents have been wilfully disobeying and deliberately flouting the said Direction is very simple. It is more than a luxury for a poor pensioner to engage a Lawyer and to make avoidable expenditure and try for making and keeping a distant contact for this simple purpose. Every thing is explained in the instant Petition on the merit of which the Petitioner appeals to the Hon'ble Tribunal to dispose it of.

6. HEARING AND DISPOSAL IN ABSENTIA.

The Petitioner is old, being 64 (sixty-four) years of age; financially handicapped, being on a meagre pension; and of ill health. He needs the constant company of escorts during journeys. It is not physically and financially possible for him to be present before the Hon'ble Tribunal in person. Moreover, he has reasons to believe that the Respondents will be asking for time again and again to drag the case and thus render the Petitioner exhausted of patience, energy and resources. So, he requests the pleasure of the Hon'ble Tribunal of being so kind and considerate as to hear this humble Petitioner in absentia and dispose of the case purely on its merit. Self attested copies of the essentially material documents are sent herewith as Annexures.

tempt Petition, with the Hon'ble Tribunal. That was also disposed of by the Hon'ble Tribunal on the 17th July, 2003, using a few harsh words for lack of sincerity on the part of the Respondents, particularly, the Respondent No. I

ANNEXURE - II

ANNEXURE - III

(iv) It also appears that the Respondent No. I avoided personal appearance before the Hon'ble Tribunal and escaped contempt of court by assuring that certain steps had been or were being taken for complying with the Direction given on the 14th September, 2001, in OA no. 231 / 2000 A.D.

(v) As a long time again passed by in total inactivity on the part of the Respondents and the assurances given by the Respondent No. I before the Hon'ble Tribunal turned totally false, the Petitioner again referred the matter to the Hon'ble Tribunal. This time, the Petitioner received a letter under no CAT/GHY/53/Judl./328 dated the 16th / 22nd April, 2004, from the Deputy Registrar, Central Administrative Tribunal, who expressed the helplessness of the Hon'ble Tribunal to take further action in the matter and advised the Petitioner to move the Appropriate Forum for redressal of the grievances, the subject-matter of the Original Petition and that of the Contempt Petition both being stood disposed of by the Hon'ble Tribunal.

ANNEXURE - IV

(vi) In this connection, the Petitioner begs to state that he was not at all aggrieved at the Direction of the Hon'ble Tribunal given on the 14th September, 2001, in OA No. 231/2000 ; but he was totally shocked by the wilful disobedience and deliberate flouting of the Court Orders by the Respondents. He simply wanted the reliefs already directed to be given by the Hon'ble Tribunal (Annexure - I) and punishment for the Respondents who were guilty of not only wilful disobedience but also making false assurances.

Santosh Kumar Adwani

(vii) On receipt of the letter (Annexure - IV), the Petitioner suddenly found the doors of the Appropriate Forum closed before him. Being at a loss, he approached the Hon'ble Supreme Court. It was not according to the procedure. The Petition was returned.

ANNEXURE - V

(viii) Then, the Petitioner approached the Hon'ble Guwahati High Court, Agartala Bench, the Registry of which forwarded his Petition to the Hon'ble Tribunal.

ANNEXURE - VI

(ix) The Petitioner made a correspondence with the Registrar of the Hon'ble Tribunal as to the fate of such a development. But, he received no response.

ANNEXURE - VII

(x) Then, the Petitioner approached the Hon'ble Supreme Court second time. His Petition was not admitted for not being covered under the PIL guidelines. It was lodged there and he was advised to move before the Concerned Court for the desired relief in the matter.

ANNEXURE - VIII

(xi) Hence, is this Petition to the Hon'ble Tribunal. The Petitioner begs to urge this point on the attention of the Hon'ble Tribunal that the Order dated the 14th September, 2001 (Annexure - I) has not yet been implemented even after a long period of more than 4 (four) years and it is not likely to be ever implemented ; because, despite the assurances given by the Respondent No. I (Annexure - II & III), no step for compliance with the said order has yet been seen to be taken.

9. RELIEFS SOUGHT

(i) The Respondents shall be compelled to comply with the Direction of the Hon'ble Tribunal given on the 14th September,

2001, in OA No. 231 / 2000 (Annexure - I)

10. CONSEQUENTIAL BENEFITS

(i) As the Petitioner has already been entitled to appointment to the IAS on the basis of the Hon'ble Tribunal's Direction (Annexure - I), he is also fully entitled to re-fixed pay on the basis of the Pay Slip (Annexure x) issued by the Finance Department, Government of Tripura, along with the Central Government allowances with effect from the date of such appointment ; extended service up to the 28th February, 2002 AD ; 2 (two) more annual increments ; retirement as an IAS Officer on completion of 60 (sixty) years of age ; increased pensionary benefits, such as, a larger amount as cash equivalent of leave due at the time of retirement, a larger amount as gratuity as per the Central Government norms, re-fixed pension, etc., on the basis of such re-fixed pay with effect from the 1st March, 2002 A.D. All such arrear amounts shall be given to the Petitioner without delay.

(ii) As there has been inordinate delay, all the benefits under (i) shall be given to the Petitioner with interest, considering the genuine economic factors of inflation and devaluation and general financial procedure for delayed payment.

(iii) As the Petitioner suffered from severe humiliation and loss of mental peace during service and in retirement and is still suffering from constant tension and anxiety even in the presence of a specific Direction for redressal of his grievances from the appropriate judicial forum, he shall be suitably compensated.

11. PUNISHMENT FOR THE RESPONDENTS

The Respondents, being responsible for wilful disobedience and deliberate flouting of Court Orders and giving false assurances before the Hon'ble Court, thereby committing and also repeating contempts over and over again for more than 4 (four) years, shall be punished.

Santosh Kumar Adhikari

( 8 )

12. COST OF THE CASE

The Respondents shall be directed to bear the cost of the case

13. The instant Petition in requisite number of copies is being sent by Registered Parcel along with an Indian Postal Order for Rs. 100/- (Rupees One hundred) only in favour of the Registrar, Central Administrative Tribunal, Guwahati.

14. LIST OF ENCLOSURES

This is an application under Section 19 of the Administrative Tribunals Act 1985 praying for a direction for providing necessary benefits to the applicant pursuant to his selection to All India Service in accordance with Indian Administrative Service (Appointment by Promotion)
Regulations 1955 in the following circumstances.

25

2. The applicant belonged to the Tripura Civil Service. A Select List was prepared for the year 1996-97 for appointment by promotion to the Indian Administrative Service (IAS) under the IAS Appointment By Promotion Regulation 1955. In the said select list the name of the applicant was included at serial No.1 by the Selection Committee which met on 27.3.1997. The applicant was selected provisionally subject to clearance of departmental proceeding pending against him and grant of Integrity Certificate by the State Government in accordance with the provisions of IAS (Appointment by Promotion) Regulations 1955. The Select List was approved by the Commission vide their letter dated 9.10.1997 and notified by the Government of India on 22.10.97. In view of the pendency of the departmental proceeding officers named at serial No.2 and 3 were promoted after keeping one post reserved for the applicant in terms of the proviso of the Regulation 9(1) of IAS Promotion Regulations of the IAS (Appointment by Promotion) Regulations 1955. After a protected enquiry the applicant was imposed with a minor penalty of censure vide order dated 12/17.3.1998. The said penalty imposed on the applicant was set aside on appeal vide order dated 12.3.98. In the meantime the applicant retired from service on 29.2.2000. On conclusion of the departmental enquiry the applicant sought for a direction for appointing him in the IAS on the basis of the Select List of 1996-97. It was asserted that the disciplinary proceeding was initiated on 14.8.92 but the proceeding was unnecessarily dragged on by the State Government for no fault of his own. There was delay in appointing the Presenting Officer and conclusion of the enquiry and finally the applicant was exonerated by the department in 1999. According to the applicant none of contd...2

the respondents took any genuine steps for giving him the benefit of promotion under the Regulation and on the strength of the Select List of 1996-97.

3. The respondents submitted their written statement. According to Union Public Service Commission (UPSC) the Selection Committee included the name of the applicant at serial No.1 provisionally but he could not be appointed to IAS due to the pendency of the disciplinary proceeding. By order dated 20.2.1999 the applicant was exonerated from the disciplinary proceeding pending against him. Though there was a clear vacancy for the applicant on 1.11.97 he was not appointed to IAS instead his junior officers were appointed from the Select List of 1996-97. It was stated by the UPSC that the State Government by its letter dated 26.3.98 stated that the officer had been fully exonerated from the charges and requested the Commission to make his name unconditional and final in terms of Regulation 9(1) of IAS Promotion Regulations. The Commission observed that the officer has not been fully exonerated and a minor penalty of censure was imposed on him and accordingly Government of Tripura was informed. It was stated that the State Government did not bring to notice of the Commission so far about the later development wherein his penalty of censure was set aside.

4. The respondent No.1 in its written statement also asserted that the name of the applicant remain provisional in 1996-97 and it was yet to be made unconditional from the UPSC. The State of Tripura, the respondent No.3 in its written statement stated that in view of the pendency of the disciplinary proceeding officers placed below the applicant in the Select List were promoted to IAS keeping one post reserved for the applicant.

5. From the facts enumerated above it thus appears that no steps were so far taken by any of the respondents for declaring the applicant unconditional in the Select List of 1996-97 despite the fact that one post was kept reserved for the applicant in pursuance of proviso 9(1) of the Regulations. We do not find any justification on the part of the respondents for not taking the follow up action after the applicant was exonerated. The applicant could not lawfully be refused the benefit of his selection to the IAS on the procrastination <sup>of</sup> the departmental proceeding in which he was fully exonerated in due course.

6. Upon hearing Mr M.Chanda, learned counsel for the applicant and Mr A.Deb Roy, learned Sr.C.G.S.C for the respondents and upon considering all the aspects of the matter, we are of the view that ends of justice will be met if a direction is given to all the respondents for giving effect to the Select List of 1996-97 wherein the name of the applicant was placed at serial No.1. The respondents are accordingly directed to take the necessary steps for giving effect to the Select List prepared in 1996-97 and provide all the consequential benefits to the applicant as per law. The respondents are directed to complete the above exercise, as early as possible, preferably within a period of 3 months from the date of receipt copy of this order.

The application is allowed. There shall, however be no order as to costs.

This is an application praying for exemption of personal appearance of the Secretary personnel as per the order of this Bench dated 11.6.2003.

Heard Mr A.Deb Roy, learned Sr.C.G. S.C for the petitioner. Notices were served on the respondents. There was no response from the respondents. As a matter of fact standing counsel appeared one after another took time to file written statement. We were kept dark as to the steps those were taken. We are only concerned as to whether any steps were taken pursuant to the judgment rendered as far back as September 2001. A litigant came and complained about the inactivity and intransigence on the part of the administration. When the respondents preferred not to riposte, we were impelled to issue notice for personal appearance. Those who are in charge of the affairs of the administration are expected to respond to the notices of the Tribunal, else justice system gets imperilled. Now it seems that concerned authority took all the steps in conformity with law, as it appears from the materials on record. Calm reticence bordering indiscretion on the part of the respondents resulted to this exercise wasting public time and money. with this caveat we revoke our order of personal appearance of the Secretary, personnel etc.

17.7.03

The Misc.application stands allowed.
No costs.

Sir,

Please refer to the correspondence no. 671 - 72 / HC/AGT/B dated 29.10.04. made by the registry of the Hon'ble Guwahati High Court, Agartala Bench, and the enclosures sent therewith.

As a layman, quite ignorant of the legal procedure, I am now quite at a loss what to do next. I do not know whether the case in the present shape, particularly in the event of the petition being addressed to the Hon'ble High Court and the I.P.O. having been returned by it, is to be admitted. More over, the communication made by your office under no. CAT / GHY/ 56/Judl./328 dated 16 / 22.04.2004 confuses me further. I ~~do~~ not even know whether such a correspondence as this one is becoming of me.

Otherwise, the situation need no further clarification. Certain reliefs were directed by the Hon'ble Tribunal to be given but the Respondents still do not care to comply with the directions of the Hon'ble Tribunal. Though a layman, I know none is above law and none can sit over a judicial order.

Under the circumstances, I would fervently request you to let me know of the stage the case is now at and thereby oblige.

Yours faithfully,

Subject : Ensuring the reliefs directed by the Hon'ble Tribunal in OA
No. 231 / 2000 on the 14th September, 2001, and punishment of the Respondents for wilfully disobeying and deliberately flouting the court orders for more than 4 (four) years.

Sir,

with due respect I beg to state that I applied to the Hon'ble Tribunal for a direction for my appointment to the Indian Administrative Service (IAS) on the basis of the Select List of 1996-97.

Hon'ble Tribunal, on the 14th September, 2001, in OA No. 231 / 2000, directed the Respondents to appoint me to the IAS on the basis of the Select List of 1996-97 with all consequential benefits.

As no action was taken by the Respondents even after a much longer time than allowed by the Hon'ble Tribunal, I filed another Application with the Hon'ble Tribunal. It was disposed of on the 17th July, 2003, by the Hon'ble Tribunal but not before bitterly criticising the Respondents for delay and wastage of time and also on some assurances given on behalf of the Respondent No. 1.

Much time passed by and no step was taken by the Respondents. I filed another Application. This was returned to me as both my Original Application and Contempt Petition had been disposed of and I was advised to approach the appropriate forum for redressal of my grievances.

In this connection, I beg to state that I was not at all disappointed in the Direction of the Hon'ble Tribunal given on the 14th September, 2001, or the orders passed on the 17th July, 2003, but totally aggrieved at the deliberate noncompliance with the above Direction and making false assurances by the Respondents, to be specific, the Respondent No. 1.

Hence, your letter no. CAT / GHY / 56 / Judl. / 328 dt. 16/22. 04. 04 confused me.

I approached the Hon'ble Supreme Court. It was a procedural mistake. The papers were returned. Then, I approached the Hon'ble Guwahati High Court, Agartala Bench. The papers sent there by me were forwarded to you. But, this my Application was not addressed to you in view of the letter no. CAT / GHY / 56 / Judl. / 328 dated the 16th / 22nd April, 2004. Confused, I made a correspondence with you. I received no reply. I approached the Hon'ble Supreme Court again. The case was not admitted but my Application was lodged. I was advised to approach the appropriate court.

Hence, I beg to file this instant Petition with the Hon'ble Tribunal again with the request to see whether the order dated the 14th September, 2001, in OA No. 231 / 2000 has yet been implemented and whether the assurances given by the Respondent No. 1 as reflected in the order dated the 17th July, 2003, have been followed up. I think, to see whether its orders has been implemented is well within the purview of that very court and for this a petitioner need not move from forum to forum.

It is my understanding that any order passed by the Hon'ble Tribunal shall be executed. If it need not be carried out by the Respondents and the Hon'ble Tribunal has no further action to compel compliance with its own order, it may be a mistake on my part to waste my time, energy and money on submitting the Original Application to the Hon'ble Tribunal which was registered OA No. 231 / 2000. Despite its merit and the Direction on appreciation of its merit, the ultimate result is disappointing for me because of wilful disobedience by the Respondents to the said Direction which is meaningless to me if not executed.

Under the circumstances, I would request you to please admit the case and dispose it of purely on its merit. According to me, it is not only contempt committed but also contempt continuously repeated by the Respondents. They are not likely to ever comply with the Direction of the Hon'ble Tribunal if not compelled.

Being an old man of ill health, I am unable to attend the court physically. So, action on the enclosed Petition may please be taken ex-parte in absentia. I am also not financially capable of engaging a lawyer to conduct my case. So, I will not be represented in that sense. My Petition is fully self-contained and self-explanatory.

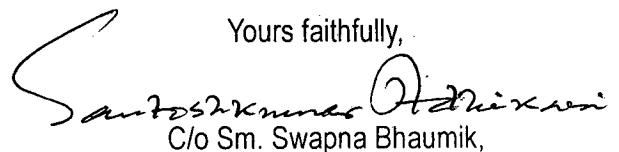

So, it is my earnest request to please take necessary steps for its admission and disposal and thereby oblige.

IN THE CENTRAL ADMINISTRATIVE
TRIBUNALS (PROCEDURE) RULES, 1987
GUWAHATI BENCH

(Rejoinder under Section 12 of the Central Administrative Tribunals (Procedure) Rules, 1987)

Title of the case : O.A. No. 65/2005

Between :

Md. Islamul Haque Mondal ..... Applicant

-Versus -

Union of India & Others ..... Respondents.

Rejoinder filed by and on behalf of the Applicant as a reply to the written Statement filed by Respondent numbers 2 and 5 of the Original Application.

1. That with respect to the contents of paragraph 1 , 5 and 19 of the Written Statement, the applicant begs to admit to the extent that the applicant is an employee of the Central Govt. and the impugned orders were also issued by the Central Govt. As such the applicant filed the Original Application before the Hon'ble Tribunal as per procedure laid down under section 19 of the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985 and hence there is no valid ground to raise any objection to the maintainability of the Original Application.
2. That the Applicant challenged the orders issued by the Central govt. and the relieves were also sought against the Central Govt. only. As such the applicant has no grievance against BSNL or its employees and also the applicant sought no relief against BSNL. Hence the applicant begs to state that the applicant has no objection to striking out names of BSNL, namely respondent numbers 2 and 5 from the Original Application, if your lordships deem fit and proper.
3. That only except what has been specifically admitted herewith the applicant denies all the statements made by Respondent Nos. 2 and 5 through the written statement.

Md. Islamul Haque Mondal

Filed by
Md. Islamul Haque Mondal
(Applicant in person)

4. That the respondents no. 2 and 5 had pleaded for striking out their names from the Original Application as being parties not necessary to the instant case through paragraphs 1 and 5 of the written statement in on hand, and on the other the same respondents 2 and 5 were trying to defend the illegal and unreasonable actions of the Central Govt., namely respondents no. 1, 3 and 4, through the paragraphs 2, 3, 4, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 14, 16, 18 and 20, and whereas only Central Govt. has the authority to defend the actions of Respondent numbers 1, 3 and 4, thus the applicant offers no comment except denying all the justifications given by respondents number 2 and 5 through the said paragraphs of the written statement.
5. That the Applicant begs to state that the impugned punishment orders issued by the Central Govt., namely respondent numbers 1, 3 and 4 are illegal and prima-facie unreasonable and the orders were issued in violation of certain provisions of the Constitution of India as clearly mentioned in the Original Application and hence the orders are liable to be set aside and quashed by this Hon'ble Tribunal.
