ORDERKHUSHIRAM, [MEMBER (A)]

The Applicant, is the widow of a deceased Railway employee, has filed this Original Application under section 19 of the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985, for a direction to the Respondents for grant of family pension since 06.11.1977.

2. According to the Applicant, her husband late Joy Kumar Das entered into Railway Services on 27.04.1966 as a casual worker and worked as a Watchman; that he was conferred with temporary status on 18.11.1967; that he was discharged from services on 08.05.1974 for participating in Railway Strike in May, 1974 and that he was re-engaged before 11.06.1977 (by condoning the period of his absence, consequent to 'Strike'); that he was restored with his last pay of Rs. 202/- in the scale of pay of Rs.196-232/-; that he died on 05.11.2007 in harness in the Railway Hospital at Badarpur of Karimganj district; that he had completed more than 10 (ten) years of regular service from 27.04.1966; for which the Applicant (as his widow) is entitled to family pension. Applicant submitted claim for family pension way back on 23.08.1978 (Annexure-2) but the same has not been approved so far; for which she has filed this Original Application. The Applicant has also claimed interest @ 12% per annum from 01.01.1979 on arrears.

3. Applicant has filed a copy of the letter dated 03.09.1998 (Annexure-A1) issued by the Section Engineer (N.F.Railway), Harangajao (Respondent No.4) addressed to the Divisional Railway Manager (P) of Lumding Division of N.F.Railway (Respondent No.2) relating to the service particulars of late Joy Kumar Das; wherein it has been disclosed that his date of appointment was 18.11.1967 and that he was discharged on 08.05.1974 for participation in (May'74) Railway Strike and that he was re-engaged before 11.06.1977. As per the said Annexure-A1, his last pay was Rs.202/- (Rs.196-232/-). It is also mentioned in the said Annexure-A1 that "exact date of re-engagement is not available in this office record. Most probably the same was recorded in his Service Book & P/Case which has already been submitted to your office after his death for FS clearance." However, service of about 10 (ten) years is stated to have been rendered by the deceased as per details in the said Annexure. Annexure-A4 at Page-28 of the O.A. is regarding resumption of duty which says, "You are taken back to duty on regular scale of pay. Please report to PWI/DCA immediately."

4. The Respondents have filed their reply statement admitting that Late Joy Kumar Das had entered in service on 18.11.1967 as Gangman/Watchman and was discharged on 08.05.1974 for participation in May'74 Railway Strike. The deceased, on his discharge, was paid an amount of Rs.479/- as final settlement due to him vide office order No.18LP dated 02.11.1976. He was re-engaged before 11.06.1977. It has been stated that the Applicant could not produce any documentary evidence on which date her deceased husband resumed duty. The fact of last pay of Rs.202/- (in the pay scale of Rs.196-232/-) drawn by the deceased (on his re-instatement/re-engagement) has not been denied by the Respondents in their written statement. It has been stated by the Respondents that, "it can be presumed that till 26.4.77 Joy Kumar Das did not resume his duty" and that he was enlisted for absorption in regular post as Watchman; but could not be posted, as he passed away on 05.11.77 and that, therefore, the Applicant is not entitled for family pension as per Rule 14 of the Railway

Service Pension Rules, 1993. It was also contended by the Respondents that the Applicant has filed this case after 29 years and, therefore, it is hopelessly barred by limitation.

5. Heard Mr. Manoranjan Das, learned counsel appearing for the Applicant and Mrs. B.Devi, learned counsel for the Railways. Learned counsel for the Applicant invited our attention to the documents produced by the Applicant and submitted that the claim of the Applicant has been denied by the Respondents without any specific documentary proof. Learned counsel for the Respondents supported the contentions made in the written statement. Besides limitation, she argued that the Applicant does not have sufficient documents to prove the claim.
6. In the written argument learned counsel for the Applicant has submitted that Applicant had filed an M.P. No.135/2006 along with this O.A. for condoning the delay in filing this O.A. This Hon'ble Tribunal vide its order dated 20.12.2006 allowed the M.P. No.135/2006 condoning the delay. In support of the contention, learned counsel for the Applicant referred to Annexure-A1 dated 03.09.1998 written by Section Engineer, Harangajao which attested the fact that the deceased was re-engaged and that his service book & P/Case has been submitted to the Respondent No.2 after his death for FS clearance. Similarly, Annexure-A4, which was received on 28.06.1975, has been signed by "P. Wey, Inspector" showing designation of the deceased as Watchman, date of appointment as 27.04.1966 CPC 18.11.1967, "sanction No.123 prove". Similarly, the letter of May, 1977 (Annexure-A4) was issued (by the Divisional Superintendent (P), N.F.Railway, Lumding) to the deceased saying, "You are taken back to duty on regular scale of pay." Learned counsel for the Applicant argued that the deceased had completed 10 (ten) years of regular/pensionable service and died in harness and, therefore, Applicant is entitled to family pension as per Rule 14 of Railway Service Pension Rules, 1993. Learned counsel for the Applicant referred to Rule 18(3) of the Bahri's Rail Services (Pension) Rules, 1993 which is reproduced herein below:-

"(3) In the event of death of harness in a temporary railway servant his family shall be eligible to family pension and death gratuity on the same scale as admissible to families to permanent railway servants under these rules."

The argument of the learned counsel for the Applicant regarding entitlement of family pension as per Railway Services (Pension) Rules, 1993 is not applicable in this case as the deceased had died in 1977 when the said Rules had not come into existence. However, Rule 18(3) of the aforesaid Rules entitles the widow of the deceased to get family pension; as the deceased had died in harness. Sub-Rule 3(b) of Rule 231.1 of the Indian Railway Establishment Manual Vol-II published on 01.08.1960 reads as under:-

"(b) The widow/widower/minor children of a temporary Railway servant, referred to in the preceding sub-para, who dies while in service after a service of not less than one year continuous (qualifying) service shall be eligible for a family pension under the provisions of para 801 of the Manual of Railway pension Rules. In their case the amount of death gratuity admissible will be reduced by an amount equal to the employee's two months pay on which the death gratuity is determined."

The service particulars of the deceased employee given in the letter dated 03.09.1998 (Anneuxre-A1) by the Section Engineer, Harangajao are apparent and proves that the details relating to the deceased employee are not false. The Advocate for the Applicant has also relied on the views of the Hon'ble Apex Court of India rendered in the case of Prabhavati Devi (reported in 1996 (32) ATC 515 and that of this Tribunal rendered at it's Ernakulam Bench in the case of Thresiakutty Lonappan and Another (reported in 1996(34)ATC 584) and that of Calcutta Bench rendered in the case of J.B.Bera (reported in 1993 (25) ATC(254) to say that the Applicant was entitled to family pension.

7. In view of the forgoing discussions, we direct the Railway Authority to reconsider the matter in the light of the facts and rules, as mentioned above, afresh, for grant of family pension sympathetically within a period of three months from the date of receipt of this order (from the date it was due) with arrears plus interest @ 6% till the final settlement of the claim.

8. The Original Application is allowed to the above extent. There shall, however, be no order as to costs.

5. JURISDICTION :

The applicant declares that the subject matter of the case is within the jurisdiction of this Administrative Tribunal.

6. FACTS OF THE CASE :

6.1. That the applicant is the citizen of India, and as such she is entitled to all the rights, privileges and protection as guaranteed by the Constitution of India and Law framed there under.

5/11/77
6.2. That, the applicant is a widow of the Ex. Watchman/Gangman, Late Joy Kumar Das. The said Joy Kumar Das entered in the Railway service on 27.4.1966 (Annexure A-4) as a Casual Worker and as a watchman and he was conferred temporary status on 18.11.1967, CL/CPC approved vide Srl. No. 353 of D.S(P), LMG's L/No.E/1/1/LM(Con) Dt. 30.6.1970. The deceased Railway Employee paid Provident^{fund} Subscriptions from 197-72, Depositor No.181275 (Annexure A-5) The said Joy Kr. Das was discharged on 08.5.74 for participation in Railway Strike in May, 74. and re-engaged before 11.6.77 condoning the period of absence consequent to 'Strike' which can be proved from his last pay of Rs.202/- in the Scale of Rs.196-232. The deceased, before his death rendered continuous service from 27.4.1966 to 5.11.1977 more than ten years, who died in harness on the 5th day of November, 1977 and in the N.F. Railway Hospital at Badarpur. A Copy of the letter dated 03.09.98, from Section Engineer, N.F. Railway Harangajao, addressed to the Divisional Railway Manager(P), N.F.Railway, Lumding, Respondent No 2 with a copy endorsement to the applicant, is enclosed. (Annexure A-1)

6.3. That, the applicant after the death of her husband submitted claims for Death gratuity and Family pension to the Respondents through the Permanent Way Inspector, Damcherra, N.F.Railway, together with an Affidavit dated 23.8.78 but after several personal visit to the office of the Respondents No.2. The Respondent No. 2 vide his letter Dated 25/4/97 (Annexure A-6) directed the Respondent No.3 for submission of immediate report but that too also have not been done yet. On the other hand, said claim forms for family pension were returned to applicant by hand by the office of the D.R.M Lumding in the year 2002 (Exact date cannot be recollected) without disclosing any written fact behind the return of those forms (Annexure A-2) and verbally told the applicant that the pension could not be given and the matter of compassionate appointment of Sri Sibu Das son of the deceased would be looking into. The applicant, thereafter on 11.3.2002 sent a representation for her Family Pension and on 31.8.2002 sent an appeal for compassionate appointment of her sole son Sibu Das to the General Manager, Respondent No. 1, but without any fruitful result from the Respondents (Annexure A-7). The applicant sent a Pleader's Notice to the Respondents on 06.01.2005 on the subject but no reply has yet been received from the Respondents and the poor applicant has been roaming from door to door of the Respondents with a beggar's bowl since the death of her husband.

6.4 That, after the death of the said Joy Kumar Das, Your humble applicant approached for grant of Family pension and for compassionate appointment but the concerned authority, i.e. the Divisional Regional Manager, (P), NFR, Lumding, lackadaisically delaying for this and that grounds and even does not reply in writing to the Applicant and the Respondent No. 2 wanted a complete report from the Respondent No 4 under whom the deceased was working and the applicant after a long persuasion got a report from the controlling Officer, of the deceased Late Joy Kumar Das Ex Gang-man, viz from Section Engineer, NFR, Harangajao, Respondent No 4 above, regarding the particulars of service of the deceased. Accordingly, the Section Engineer, Harangajao NFR, sent a letter dated 03/9/1998, a copy of the said letter was endorsed to your applicant (Copy enclosed as Annexure A-1), which makes it clear that the said deceased was in the regular service as Gang-man, as claimed by the applicant, in the Department of N.F. Railway, rendered more than ten years of regular service under the Respondents and the deceased was approved CL/CPC and is eligible for Pension/Family Pension. But even then, the Respondents, particularly Respondents No.2 above, have failed to take steps and did not pay Family Pension to Your humble Applicant. In such situations, the Applicant paid several visits to the office of the Respondents but the Respondents over looked her genuine and legitimate claims of family pension and also did not feel it necessary to give a written reply to Your Humble Applicant except verbal assurance of examining her case of family pension but the respondents did nothing. Hence, Your humble applicant has no way out but to take the recourse of this Tribunal to mitigate her long pending, genuine, bona fide and legal prayer demanding Family Pension with effect from 06/11/1977 against the Respondents who own, manage, control and administer the affairs of the Department of N. F. Railways.

7. GROUND FOR RELIEF WITH LEGAL PROVISIONS :

case be curtailed or withdrawn, unless otherwise than by and through a due process of law. In the instant case, the Department of Railways acted arbitrarily and grossly failed to act with due diligence in discharging the duties towards the poor widow of a deceased employee who was working under them as an approved regular employee and rendered more than ten years of continuance service before his death in harness on 5.11.1977 at Badarpur Railway Hospital after a brief treatment of two months.

7.2 That, the delay causing evasiveness for granting of family pension to Your applicant is a desperate violation of fundamental rights as envisages in Articles 14 and 16 of the Constitution of India.

7.3. That, the Applicant is entitled to get Family Pension from the Department of Railway with effect from 06/11/1977, vis a vis service rendered by her deceased husband, as per Paras 2311 (3)(b)/2315/2318 of Indian Railways Establishment Manual and the principle "Casual Worker in Railways acquiring the status of 'substitutes' and after continuing as such for over a year, dying-consequences-on completing 6 months' continuous service, held, he became Temporary Railway servant and when he died after one year's continuous service his widow and children became entitled to family pension" laid down by the Supreme Court of India in Civil Appeal No. 10492 of 1995, Prabhavati Devi Vs. Union of India, decided on November 16, 1995, reported in (1996) 32 A.T.Cs. 515. And in this instant case the deceased while in service fulfilled the criteria for service and pension, fixed by the Department of Railways vide provisions of rules of Indian Railways Establishment Manual, mentioned herein before.

7.4. That, it is an incumbent on the employer/Respondents to conduct the pension case of the deceased soon after the death of the employee but in the instant case the Applicant has been roaming with a beggars bowl for her claims of family pension but failed to yield any positive result and the delay in finalization family pension is due to the procrastinated action on the part of the Respondents only and the Respondents are legally bound to release family pension in favour of the Applicant with effect from 06.11.1997 with accrued interest thereon at the rate of 12% per annum. In this connection Thresiakutty Lonappan and Another Vs. U.O.I., O.As. Nos. 527 and 590 of the C.A.T. Ernakulam Bench, reported in (1996) 34 A.T.C. 584 is referred to and supported by the decision in the Writ Petition of Smt. Maya Chakraborty Vs. State of Assam, in the Hon'ble Hight Court, Guwahati, (W.P (C) 2926/2003), decided on 22/2/2005.

7.5 That, it is true that the applicant came to know from the Respondents No. 2 verbally in the year 2002 that the family pension would not be granted to her and she sent Pleader's Notice on 6.01.05 and now approaching this Tribunal and keeping in view the fact that she is a poor widow of a poor deceased, Group-D employee, having no other source of income, living on the mercy of her relatives, representing to the Respondents repeatedly, it is proper to accept her application on the ground of substantial justice. The principle has been set by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in S.S. Rathore Vs State of M.P (1989) 4 SCC 582, which is followed by CAT, Allahabad Bench, in NANDALAL V UOI & Others, (1993) 23 ATCs 462.

8. RELIEF SOUGHT FOR :

In view of the fact mentioned in para 6 above the applicant prays for following reliefs:-

- (a) A direction to the respondents particularly to the Respondent No.2, to grant family pension and other service benefit due to a regular deceased employee, with accrued interest at the rate of 12% per annum from 01. 01. 1979, to the applicant with effect from 06.11.77, following the death of her husband (Ex-Gangman).
- (b) A Direction for compassionate appointment to the sole son of the deceased namely Sri Sibu Das.
- (c) An order for payment of cost of this case, and/or such other relief(s) as Your Honour would deem fit and proper.

And

For the act of Your kindness Your Humble applicant as in duty bound shall ever pray.
