The applicant is the widow of late Amitava Chanda who was working as T/No. 83 Fitter Auto (SS) in 41 Vehicle Company, C/o- 99 APO under the Government of India, Ministry of Defence, New Delhi. Late Amitava Chanda had left behind him his wife and four (4) children. The applicant made a representation (Annexure - 1) in

[Signature]

March, 2002 before the 3rd respondent for giving compassionate appointment to her. Now it is stated that after about 3 years a decision is taken by the higher authority on 24.02.2005 to consider the applicant's case for compassionate appointment. It is also stated that the applicant had produced no objection certificate in the form of affidavit from other legal heirs. The grievance of the applicant is that till date no final decision is taken in the matter.

2. We have heard Mr. M. Chanda, learned counsel for the applicant and also Mr. M.U. Ahmed, learned Addl. C.G.S.C. for the respondents.

3. As already noted late Amitava Chanda, who was an employee under the Central Government died on 26.07.2001. The applicant filed representation for compassionate appointment in March, 2002. A decision alleged to have been taken for considering the claim of the applicant on 24.02.2005 but till date no final decision is taken. In that view of the matter this application can be disposed of at the admission stage itself with a direction. In the circumstances, we direct the 3rd respondent to take final decision on Annexure - 1 representation considering the affidavit of the other legal heirs (Annexure - 2) as early as possible at any rate within a period of three months from the date of receipt of this order.

The applicant will produce a copy of this order before the 3rd respondent within ten days for compliance.

The O.A. is disposed of at the admission stage as above.

DETAILS OF THE APPLICATION

1. Particulars of order(s) against which this application is made.

This application is made not against any particular order but praying for a direction upon the respondents for appointment of the applicant on compassionate ground with immediate effect in any group 'D' post on the ground that husband of the applicant died in harness on 26.07.2001 while in service.

2. Jurisdiction of the Tribunal.

The applicant declares that the subject matter of this application is well within the jurisdiction of this Hon'ble Tribunal.

3. Limitation.

The applicant further declares that this application is filed within the period of limitation prescribed under Section-21 of the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985.

4. Facts of the Case.

- 4.1 That the applicant is a citizen of India and as such she is entitled to all the rights, protections and privileges as guaranteed under the Constitution of India.
- 4.2 That the husband of the applicant Late Amitava Chanda was working as T/No. 83 Fitter Auto (SS) in 41 Vehicle Company, C/O- 99 APO under the Govt. of India, Ministry of Defence, New Delhi.
- 4.3 That the husband of the applicant while working as T/No. 83 Fitter Auto (SS) in 41 Vehicle Company, C/O- 99 APO under the Govt. of India, Ministry of Defence, New Delhi died due to Blood Cancer while in service on 26.07.2001. The husband of the applicant has rendered service under the Respondents for more than 20 years and about 10 years of service was left in his credit at the time of his death and he was permanent confirmed employee under the Respondents.

Manju Chanda.

4.4 That it is stated that late Amitava Chanda at the time of his death left his wife with two daughters and two sons, and name of the five dependents are as below: -

- 1) Smti Manju Chanda - wife- date of birth- 01.01.1959.
- 2) Smti Anjana Chanda - daughter- date of birth- 17.02.1979.
- 3) Smti Ajanta Chanda- daughter- date of birth- 17.03.1981.
- 4) Shri Ajitava Chanda- son- date of birth- 17.04.1983.
- 5) Shri Atanu Chanda- son- date of birth- 21.11.1084.

It is stated that there is no bread earner in the family after the tragic death of late Amitava Chanda and they are entirely depending upon the meager family pension of the deceased government servant late Amitava Chanda.

4.5 That the applicant immediately after death of her husband approached the Authority through representation dated nil' March, 2002 for an appointment on compassionate ground in any Group 'D' post. It is stated that late Amitava Chanda has not left any movable or immovable property except meager amount of pension, therefore, it is not possible to maintain the family members with such a meager amount of money for the above mentioned dependents and for their education and marriage of two daughters.

A copy of the representation dated nil, March' 2002 is enclosed herewith for perusal of Hon'ble Tribunal as Annexure-1.

4.6 That the applicant even after praying for appointment on compassionate ground both verbally and through representation dated nil March' 2002 she is not getting any type of appointment under the respondents. It is stated that the applicant has been approaching the respondents for last 3 years and 10 months for her appointment in any group 'D' post. It is also disappointing to know that the Commanding Officer of the competent authority has cancelled her 'Ration card' facility which she was getting earlier. However, it is informed to the applicant by the respondents that she would be given the facility of 'Ration card' in the event of her appointment on compassionate ground. Now the position of the applicant and her dependents are have become much more miserable. As such the applicant is neither getting appointment on compassionate ground in any Group 'D' post nor she is getting 'Ration card' facility which she has a valid right to get.

It is further stated by the applicant in her representation that sudden demise of the husband of the applicant has put the family in an embarrassing situation as he was the sole physical, mental and economical back bone of the family. Be it stated that after the death of husband of the applicant the whole family is facing financial crisis, as such the applicant has been compelled to stop further study of her elder son and daughters due to financial crisis except that of the youngest son Shri Atanu Chanda. So in this regard it may also be said that the children are being deprived of their right of education due to financial crisis. In such a compelling situation the applicant approached the authorities for her appointment in any Group 'D' post time and again but the authority did not take any initiative to appoint her and to save the entire family from being ruined, therefore, inaction of the respondents are in violation of scheme of compassionate appointment to a family member of a deceased employee.

- 4.7 That it is stated that the applicant in her earlier representation dated nil' March' 2002 explained in detail regarding the dire need of compassionate appointment to any Group 'D' post as because she is Class VIIth pass.
- 4.8 That your applicant while eagerly waiting for her appointment on compassionate ground she could learn from reliable source that an order has been issued bearing letter No. 321914/B-42/103/05-8C dated

Manju Chanda.

24.02.2005 by the higher authority to consider her case for compassionate appointment but unfortunately till date no action has been initiated by the respondents to appoint the applicant on compassionate ground. Therefore, in such a compelling circumstance the applicant approaching this Hon'ble Tribunal for an appropriate direction upon the respondents to appoint her on compassionate ground in any suitable Group 'D' post with immediate effect.

- 4.9. That it is stated that the applicant also submitted relevant documents including the no objection certificate in the form of affidavit and declaration of the family members and necessary income certificate in support of her claim for compassionate appointment to the Authority but till date the Respondent Authority did not process the case of the applicant for compassionate appointment and delaying the matter of appointment on compassionate ground causing irreparable hardship to the dependent family members of the deceased Govt. servant.

Copies of no objection certificate in the form of affidavit are enclosed herewith for perusal of Hon'ble Tribunal as Annexure-2.

- 4.10 That it is a fit case for the Hon'ble Tribunal to interfere with and protect the rights and interests of the applicant by passing an appropriate order directing the respondents to appoint the applicant on compassionate ground in any suitable Group 'D' post with immediate effect.

- 4.11 That this application is made bonafide and for the cause of justice.

5. Grounds for relief(s) with legal provisions.

- 5.1 For that, husband of the applicant died in harness while in service way back on 28.01.2001 leaving altogether five dependent family members as such the applicant is entitled to be considered for compassionate appointment to support the dependent family members.

5.2 For that, the depended family members of the deceased Govt. servant has no other source of income except a meager amount of monthly family pension. As such her case for appointment on compassionate ground is liable to be considered for immediate effect.

5.3 For that, necessary application and all relevant document has already been submitted before the competent Authority for consideration of her appointment on compassionate ground long back but to no result.

5.4 For that, the case of compassionate appointment ought to have been considered on priority basis considering the urgency of the matter but unfortunately no such consideration has been made in the instant case of the applicant.

6. Details of remedies exhausted.

That the applicant states that she has exhausted all the remedies available to her and there is no other alternative and efficacious remedy than to file this application.

7. Matters not previously filed or pending with any other Court.

The applicant further declares that she had not previously filed any application, Writ Petition or Suit before any Court or any other authority or any other Bench of the Tribunal regarding the subject matter of this application nor any such application, Writ Petition or Suit is pending before any of them.

8. Relief(s) sought for:

Manju Chanda.

Under the facts and circumstances stated above, the applicant humbly prays that Your Lordships be pleased to admit this application, call for the records of the case and issue notice to the respondents to show cause as to why the relief(s) sought for in this application shall not be granted and on perusal of the records and after hearing the parties on the cause or causes that may be shown, be pleased to grant the following relief(s):

- 8.1 That the Hon'ble Tribunal be pleased to direct the respondents to appoint the applicant in any suitable Group 'D' post on compassionate ground with immediate effect.
- 8.2 Any other relief(s) to which the applicant is entitled as the Hon'ble Tribunal may deem fit and proper.

9. Interim order prayed for.

During pendency of this application, the applicant prays for the following interim relief: -

- 9.1 That the Hon'ble Tribunal be pleased to direct that pendency of this application shall not be a bar to the respondents to consider the case of the applicant for appointment on compassionate ground.

EMPLOYMENT IN RELAXATION TO NORMAL RULES

Sir,

With due respect and humble submission, I beg to submit that my husband T/Nr 83 Amitava Chanda had expired while in service on 28 Jul 2001(AN). The individual had left the following family members whose details are furnished below :-

		Dt of birth
(a)	Smt Manju Chanda (Wife)	01 Jan 1959
(b)	Shri Ajitava Chanda (Son)	17 Apr 1983
(c)	Shri Atanu Chanda (Son)	21 Nov 1984
(d)	Miss Anjana Chanda (Un married daughter)	17 Feb 1979
(e)	Miss Ajanta Chanda	17 Mar 1981

It is submitted that my husband had not left any movable/ immovable property except a meagre pension and some benefit. It is not possible to maintain the family members through this family pension for these grown-up children such as education and marriage to daughters.

In view of the above, I may please be considered in a class III or IV post in relaxation to my husband so that I can give a support to maintain the dependents family members. In this connection court affidavit made is enclosed herewith for your perusal and necessary action please.

Thanking you.

Yours faithfully,
Manju Chanda
