(3)

requested to come with family and money. On receipt of this information, the applicant submitted another application for 10(ten) days casual leave from 18th October 2004 to 27th October 2004 and said application of the applicant was forwarded to Section Commander SQN. Ldr and he on his turn forwarded the same to the Commanding Officer Wg. Cdr. J. Mishra for an approval. The Commanding Officer Wg. Cdr. J. Mishra did not approve the leave application of the applicant without any consideration.

(A photocopy of Leave Register is annexed as Annexure No.2)

That the leave application of the applicant having not being granted and the illness of his mother becoming serious, the applicant finding no option left before him was compelled to leave the Station to meet his ailing mother. That the applicant after spending 12 (twelve) days with his ailing mother came back on 29th October, 2004 and the applicant reported for duty on 30th October, 2004. That the applicant submitted medical certificate regarding illness of his mother for consideration of his leave as casual leave. The leave application of the applicant was not granted. The applicant was charged for absence without leave for 12 days. That being charged under the aforesaid reasons, the applicant was awarded punishment u/s 82 of Air Force, Act, 1950 and as a result of which he was deprived of his acting rank. The punishment imposed on the applicant was in clear contravention of the provisions of law.

(A photocopy of the Order of deprivation of acting rank is annexed as Annexure No.3)

5. That upon the deprivation of the acting rank of the applicant, the applicant submitted a review petition dated 17th May, 2005 to Air Officer Commanding, 11 Wing Air Force, C/O 99 APO under Rule 3 of Air Force Regulation, 1969 against the order of punishment of deprivation of acting rank. But the said review petition was also not considered.

(A photocopy of Review petition is annexed as Annexure No.4 and a photocopy of the Order of rejection of review petition is annexed as Annexure No.5)

6. That as per provisions of the Air Force Act, 1950 and Air Force Regulations, 1969, as and when the Commanding Officer of the Unit awarded punishment of deprivation of the acting rank of any Airmen, the said Airman must be posted to another Unit and the matter may be immediately informed to AFRO in respect of reduction of rank and after the period of six months service the Airman shall be restored to his former position. V. GROUND FOR RELIEF WITH LEGAL PROVISIONS: -

1. For that the punishment, which was awarded to the applicant, was biased, unjust and improper, hence illegal.
2. For that the punishment awarded to the applicant i.e. deprivation of acting rank given under section 82 of Air Force Act, 1950 is highly illegal and unjust as it is disproportionate to the alleged misconduct.

3. For that the punishment awarded to the applicant to the contrary to and in violation of the Section 82 the Air Force Act, 1950 and Air Force Regulations, 1969, since the applicant was not posted/ transferred to another unit to work with lower rank rather the applicant without being posted to another unit had to work in the same unit with a lower rank with the junior colleagues.

4. For that there has been double jeopardy which amounts to gross violations of the provisions of law, on the one hand the applicants 12 days salary was cut, on the other hand he was awarded punishment of deprivation of acting rank for the same alleged offence.

5. For that even after completion of six months from the date of deprivation of acting rank, the applicant was not restored to his former rank, which is a clear violation of the provisions of the Indian Air Force Act, 1950 and Air Force Regulations, 1969.

6. For that the order is illegal, since the provisions of law were not complied with.

7. For that the applicant was not issued any show cause notice with regard to the deprivation of his acting rank and also the applicant was not provided with the opportunity of being heard in respect of the deprivation of the acting rank and hence there has been violation of Natural Justice.

REVIEW UNDER RULE 33 OF AIR FORCE REGULATIONS 1969
OF THE ORDER IMPOSING PUNISHMENT OF
DEPRIEVATION OF ACTING RANK

Sir,

1. I have the honour to request the following few lines for your kind consideration and sympathetic action.
2. I was on the posted strength of MOFTU 'B' w.e.f. 02 Mar 04 to 7 Jan 05, while on the posted strength of MOFTU 'B', I was attached to BHCT (under SFSI&O). On 14 Oct 04 at 1730 Hrs, I received a message through Orderly Officer that my mother is hospitalised and my presence is required there.
3. I had applied 10 days casual leave from 17 Oct 04 to 26 Oct 04, which was forwarded by Flt Cdr Flt Safety Flt, without asking any replacement from MOFTU 'B' but without any cogent and valid reason my leave was rejected by my Commanding Officer. While in fact on humanitarian ground, even in case of emergency situation like operations, war etc individuals may get leave to attend the medical emergencies of dependent parents, spouse, children etc. But in my case without any cogent reason the leave was denied and even the opportunity of personal hearing was also declined.
4. That faced with such an unprecedented situation, apprehending worst in respect of my mother, I rushed with my family to my hometown Anoopshahar Distt Bulandshahar (U.P.).
5. After attending my ailing mother I came back on 29 Oct 04, 2345 hrs and reported for duty on 30 Oct 04 (Saturday) at 0800 hrs (verified by civil police officials and forwarded on 04 Jan 05 to MOFTU 'B').

6. On 11 Nov 04, the Commanding Officer tried me for charge of absence without leave without considering, the attending facts and circumstance and without looking into the medical certificate issued by Government Hospital (Xerox copy attached) in respect of my mother and my past clean career record in IAF. The Commanding Officer imposed maximum punishment i.e. deprivation of acting rank, which could be given under section 82 of AF Act which is highly disproportionate to alleged misconduct.
7. Further, I was made to work in the same unit with a lower rank along with my juniors to suffer the embarrassment and humiliation in sharp contrast to the guidelines and orders in this regards. It is relevant to mention here that as per guidelines as soon as the reduction of the rank(s) as a consequence of deprivation of acting rank under section 82 of Air Force Act is affected, the CO unit shall inform by signal to AFRO to post the airman out with immediate effect. Which was considerably delayed and I was posted to this wing w.e.f. 07 Jan 05 (approx after two months of my deprivation of rank).
8. As per the above mentioned facts and circumstances I feel that I was not meted out a fair and just treatment and highly disproportionate punishment is a sequel to that. Even after completion of six month from the date of deprivation of acting rank (11 Nov 04) also I am unable to restore my rank due to my late posting.(posted out from MOFTU 'B' w.e.f. 07 Jan 05).
9. It is therefore most respectfully prayed that my rank may please be restored by renewing the punishment awarded to me.

Yours Faithfully

NOTICE UNDER SECTION 80 OF CIVIL PROCEDURE CODE: -

Dear Sir,

Under instruction of my client Sri P.K. Garg, Service No. 760424-KSgt, serving in the Indian Air Force, Air Force Station, Tezpur, P.O- Tezpur, Dist- Sonitpur, Assam, I do hereby serve upon you the following Notice:-

1. That my client after serving in many places in India sincerely and honestly ultimately was posted to Air Force Station, Tezpur, under Commanding Officer, MOFTU "B" SQN, C/o 11 Wing, C/o 99 APO that my client since the day of joining in Indian Air Force has been discharging his duty sincerely, honestly and diligently without any blemish in his service career.
2. That while my client was serving in the Air Force Station, Tezpur, he applied to the concerned authority for 12(twelve) days casual leave from 18th October 2004 to 29th October 2004 for the purpose of seeing his ailing mother as she was suffering from serious illness. The Commanding Officer, Wg. Cdr. J. Mishra without considering the leave application of my client rejected the same. However, the Commanding Officer could have granted the same under the prescribed rules.

3. That on 14-10-2004, upon receipt of a message from his younger brother that his mother was seriously ill and she was hospitalized and he was requested to come with family and money. On receipt of this information, my client submitted an application for 10(ten) days casual leave from 18th October 2004 to 27th October 2004 and said application of my client was forwarded to Section Commander SQN. Ldr and he on his turn forwarded the same to the Commanding Officer Wg. Cdr. J. Mishra for a approval. That surprisingly the Commanding Officer Wg. Cdr. J. Mishra did not approve the leave application of my client.
4. That the leave application of my client having not being granted and the illness of my client mother becoming serious, my client finding no option left before him was compelled to leave the Station to meet his ailing mother. That my client after spending 12 (twelve) days with his ailing mother came back on 29th October, 2004 and my client reported for duty on 30th October, 2004. That my client submitted medical certificate regarding illness of his mother for consideration of his leave as casual leave, however before the leaving for his hometown to see his seriously ill mother who was hospitalized. That the leave of absence was not granted despite the fact that my client left the Station for a sufficient cause and /or reason.
5. That however without giving any sympathetic consideration to my client's leave of absence (which my client had to do under a unavoidable circumstance) my client was charged for absence without leave for 12 days.
6. That it may be stated that there has not been any act or omission on the part of my client and in no case his past service record was tarnished or stigmatized.
7. That for reasons stated above and for the aforesaid charge, my client was awarded with maximum punishment which could not be given under Section 82 of Air Force Act and the punishment imposed on my client was in clear contravention of the provisions of the laid down law. And my client as a result he was deprived of his acting rank.
8. That the provisions of law is that as soon as the Commanding Officer of the Unit awarded punishment of deprivation of rank of any airmen, he must be posted to the new unit and the matter may be immediately informed to AFRO of the matter of reduction of rank and that after the period of six months service, the airman may be restored to his former rank.
9. That my client however, without being posted to a new unit, had to work in the same Unit with the lower rank along with his junior colleagues, as a result of which my client had to suffer from constant humiliation and embarrassment to the utter violation of the guidelines and the order/provisions of Law and the Rules. That in the same unit after serving in a lower rank for a period of approximately two month, my client was restored to his former position/rank after eight months from deprivation of his rank.

10. That my client thereafter upon deprivation of his rank, submitted a review petition under Rule 33 of Air Force Regulation 1969 against the punishment of deprivation of acting rank to the Air Force Commanding 11 Wing AF. C/O 99 APO which was also not considered.

11. That the punishment which was awarded to my client was biased, unjust and improper, hence illegal.

12. That the punishment imposed on my client is in direct violation of and in contravention of the provisions of the law/regulations and for which my client had to suffer mental harassment and ignominy before his colleague.

RELIEF CLAIMED:-

I therefore, on the instruction of my client demand that you would after due consideration declare that the punishment awarded to my client is illegal and the punishment awarded to my client being illegal, delete the same from the service record of my client and further demand that you would pay the amount of Rs. 3,00,000/- (Three lakh) only to my client as compensation on account of mental suffering, harassment and monetary loss and on your failure to do so my client will be compelled to initiate legal proceeding in the Court of Law against you all after the expiry of 2 (Two) months from the date of receipt of this notice, for which you would be liable for all costs and consequence which please take note of.

Yours faithfully
