ORDER (ORAL)

HON'BLE MUKESH KUMAR GUPTA, MEMBER (I):

M.A. No. 123/2009 has been filed seeking deletion of Respondent No.1 from the array of parties as no relief is sought against said Respondent.

2. Six Applicants aspiring for the post of Trainee Assistant Station Master, in this O.A. seek direction to the Respondents to select them for said post, with all consequential benefit including costs.

3. Admitted facts are that Employment Notice No: 03 of 2006 had been published in local News Paper on 2nd September 2006 whereby Railway Recruitment Board, Guwahati invited application from eligible candidates for various posts including Trainee Assistant Station Master. Applicants being educationally qualified and eligible applied for said post. They appeared in written examination and had qualified. They also appeared in Aptitude test. The applicants were confident that they would be finally selected. Ultimately a select list was published on 24th September, 2008, wherein their name did not appear.

4. Their grievance is that, inspite of the fact, they had done in the said Aptitude test extremely well and they were hopeful to qualify, but their name was deleted from final select list. They have submitted representation on 28th September 2008 seeking information regarding procedure of selection, re-assess the answers scripts and thereafter to select them in the said category, which remain unconsidered, till date.

5. Mr. B.K. Das, learned counsel for applicant strongly contended that said selection procedure is vitiated by malice and favoritism. They had legitimate expectation of selection and for extraneous consideration they had been excluded from the final select list though they had passed written test and did extremely well in Aptitude test. Undue favour has been shown to selected candidates.

6. By filing rejoinder, Applicants have contended that they were confident of securing 70% in the written examination and rest of 30% remained for psychological test. It is not known to them what were total marks assigned to them in psychological test. Respondents have tried to avoid disclosing what actual procedure was followed in said test and therefore they are misleading this Tribunal.

7. In the above backdrop, learned counsel for Applicants contended that they are entitled to reliefs as prayed for.

8. By filing reply and contesting the claim laid by Applicants, it was stated that call letters for aptitude test were issued by Respondent No.3 more than one month ahead of the aptitude test scheduled to be held from 21st July 2008 to 23rd July 2008. The appointed examiner, having the requisite criteria, qualification and expertise in the concerned field having technical experience, examined the candidates in their aptitude test and assessed their performance accordingly. Hence applicants' allegations are baseless and have no legal force. There is no candidate bearing Roll No. 263171038281 who had not answered the question as alleged and yet found place in the list of successful candidates. The correct Roll No. has to be of 14 digits. Ability of a candidate to make a self-assessment about one's own performance with absolute confidence in the test is not acceptable as it is not a typical and common form of examination. Their charge of malice and favoritism was strongly denied.

9. It was further emphasized that the psychological aptitude test was done by specialized competent persons, and accordingly, the select list was published. Regarding their representation addressed to EDE (RRB), Railway Board, New Delhi, dated 28th September 2008 it was denied. It was stated that the same had not been received by Railway Recruitment Board, Guwahati.

10. Mrs. B. Devi, learned counsel for Respondents has produced psychological aptitude test's result of all the candidates for the post in question to establish that the applicants had not qualified and were found unsuitable in the post in question. Reliance was also placed on Ministry of Railway, Research Designs & Standards Organization, Lucknow, communication dated 16.04.2007 pointing out the procedure in vogue for deciding the "suitability" of candidates in aptitude test for safety categories post. It was emphasized that all candidates who fail to obtain maximum qualifying score in any of the test are referred to as "Not Suitable" in the result sheet and no marks were assigned to them.

11. We have heard learned counsel Mr. B.K. Das for Applicant and Mrs. B. Devi for Respondents, perused the pleadings and other materials placed on record. On examination of the matter with reference to the pleadings raised as well as the psychological aptitude test result of all the candidates, we are of the considered opinion that present O.A. is based on pure hypothesis and applicant's self serving statement. The fact is that they have not done very well in the aptitude test concerned and therefore declared fail. As already observed hereinabove, we do not find any justification in the said contention raised particularly when the complete result reveals, otherwise. There is no iota of justification in their contention raised. Allegations of favoritism and malice have been made without producing or placing on record any cogent material, warranting recording of conclusion & decision and therefore, there are no reasons to accept the same. Applicants having not succeeded in the aptitude test were rightly declared unsuitable for the posts in question.

12. Having taken a cumulative view of the matter, and in view of discussion made hereinabove, O.A. is found to be bereft of any merit, and as such, dismissed. No costs.

A copy of the select list dated 24.9.2008 is enclosed herewith and marked as Annexure-C.

8. That the applicants state that non selection of the applicants in the select list inspite of the fact they did extremely well and satisfactory in the test and on the other hand selection of certain candidates who even failed to answer any question correctly apparently appears that the selection process was vitiated by malice and favoritism. The applicants submitted representation dated 28.9.2008 seeking information regarding procedure of selection, re-assess the answers scripts of the applicants and thereafter to select the applicants to the posts of Assistant Station Master under the category 17 of the Advertisement No.3/2006. However, till date, the said representation has not been considered and disposed of by the concerned authority.

A copy of the said representation dated 28.9.2008 is enclosed herewith and marked as Annexure-D.

VII. GROUNDS: -

- (I) For that selection of Trainee Assistant Station Master under clause No.17 of the Advertisement No. 3/2006 is vitiated by malice and favoritism.

52
P. S. Ch. Roy

(II) For that non selection of the applicants to the posts of Trainee Assistant Station Master is most illegal. The petitioner came out successful of the written test and then the aptitude test. For the reasons best known to the Respondents, the applicants are not selected for the posts under clause 17 of the Advertisement.

(III) For that the action of the Respondents in not considering the representation of the applicants dated 28.9.2008 is most illegal, arbitrary and unreasonable.

(IV) For that the applicants have legitimate expectation for considering their representation by the authority. For wholly extraneous consideration, the authority has not considered the applicant's representation.

(V) For that some candidates even could not answered any question correctly both in the written and the aptitude test. For instance, a candidate being Roll No. 263171038281 cried while he could not answer any question. But most surprisingly, such were selected for appointment in the select list dated 24.9.2008. Selection of such candidates undoubtedly vitiated the selection process.

(VI) For that though a process of selection was maintained, but in reality, the respondents adhered chose and pick method and selected candidates for undue favour. In that view of the matter, the whole selection is vitiated and the same required to be interfered.

Perfora ch-Roy

(VII)

For that as on date no person has been appointed pursuant to the select list dated 24.9.2008. The applicants submits that keeping in view of the illegality committed by the respondents in the selection process, direction may be issued not to appoint any candidate till finalization of the present application.

VIII. DETAILS OF THE REMEDIES EXHAUSTED: -

The applicants declare that they exhausted all the remedies available to them and there is no other alternative remedy available to them.

IX. MATTER NOT PREVIOUSLY FILED OR PENDING WITH ANY OTHER COURT: -

The applicants have not filed any other case/ application before any other Court/ Tribunal regarding the present subject matter.

X. RELIEF SOUGHT: -

Under the circumstances, the applicants pray for the following reliefs: -

1. to issue notice to the Respondents,
2. call for the records of the case,

46
Pragna K. Roy

3. to direct the Respondents to select the applicants for the posts of Trainee Assistant Station Master under the category 17 of Advertisement No. 3/2006.
4. to consider the representation of the applicants,
5. In the interim, to direct the respondents not to appoint any candidate to the posts of Trainee Assistant Station Master under the category 17 of Advertisement No. 3/2006 till finalization of the present application,
5. to pay the cost of the application,
6. any other relief/reliefs to which the applicants are entitled to under the facts and circumstances of the case as may be deemed fit and proper.

XI. INTERIM ORDER PRAYED FOR: -

To direct the respondents not to appoint any candidate to the posts of Trainee Assistant Station Master under the category 17 of Advertisement No. 3/2006 till finalization of the present application.

To,

The Executive Director Establishment (RRB) Railway Board, New Delhi.

Dated 28.09.2008

Reference: Information regarding the doubtful selection of E.N. No. 03/2006 of Cat. No.- 17. for the post of ASM under controlling of the RRB.
Guwahati.

Subject: For enquiry the procedure of selection, re-assist the answer sheet and re-select the candidate as per norms of merit lists and Advertisement.

Sir,

With due respect, we the aggrieved candidates like to draw your kind attention and good intimation for and about the doubtful selection of the Railway Recruitment Board, Guwahati and take steps for the goodself of the unemployed youths.

We aggrieved on the following the truthful facts wants to bring your knowledge that the Railway Recruitment Board, Guwahati had advertised on dated 02-09-2006 to fillup the post for ASM under category No. 17 to be held the 1st stage written examination on dated 30-09-2007 and Aptitude Examination from 21-07-2008 to 23-07-2008.

On the very fateful date of examination hall a student bearing Roll No.
20063171038281 cried out in great depression after discussion with the examination controller that he had not rightly answered the item No. 5 i.e. the Ability Test (which was no marks, no negative marks and hundred percent compulsory touch) wrongly wrote his answer at the item No. 4 instead of item No.5, whereas the item No. 4 need not to answer by the said candidate as the controlling authority cancelled the item No.4.

The examination authority had not shown the marks against each test and adopted a great policy to select the 104 candidates for recruitment amongst the 520 candidates, where the result was published in the newspaper. We came to know from the reliable sources that after scrutiny and assessment of the marks of the candidates the selection authority had written on the answer sheet only qualified. In this process a question arises what is the actual selection procedure of the RRB to select a candidate?

Surprisingly, when the result was announced, the noted Roll No.- 20063171038281 came victorious. Thus, the question arises from this incident how such the ways where from a candidate able to success that could happen in such reputed Central Government Post followed by the RRB, Guwahati. From this incident we the aggrieved candidates have almost lost faith in such examination, where a great expectation were there and suffering from great mental anxiety.

Therefore, we like to request you to enquire the matter and establish the truth of the mode of selection procedure of the RRB, Guwahati as can as immediate, otherwise we shall bound to find the legal side for proper remedy.

For, this act of your kind consideration we shall remain ever grateful to you and oblige:

Yours truly,
Prafulla Ch. Roy

candidates.

O.A. NO. 18 of 2009

Respondents.

The Written Statements of the Respondents are as follows:-

1. That a copy of the Original Application No.18/2009 (hereinafter) referred to as the "application" has been served upon the respondents. The respondents have gone through the same and understood the contents thereof.
2. That save and except the statements which are specifically admitted by the respondents, the rest of the statements made in the application may be treated as denied.
3. That the statements made in paragraph 1,2,3 and 4 to the application the deponent has nothing to comment unless contrary to the records.
4. That with regard to the statements made in paragraph 5 to the application the answering respondent begs to state that no call letters were issued by Respondent No.3 RRB/GHY on 23.07.08 for candidates appearing in the aptitude test. In fact the call letters for the aptitude test were issued by Respondent No.3 more than one month ahead of the aptitude test scheduled to be held from 21.07.08 to 23.07.08.
5. That the statements made in paragraph 6 to the application are untrue allegations and the answering respondent denies the correctness of the same. The appointed examiner having the requisite criteria, qualification and expertise in the concerned field having technical experience examined the candidates in their aptitude test and assessed their performances accordingly. Hence the applicants' claim is baseless having no legal force at all.

6. That the answering respondent denies the correctness of the statements made in paragraph 7 & 8 to the application. It is again reiterated as stated in the preceding paragraph that only the specialized examiner/evaluator is competent to assess the suitability of a candidate appearing in the psychological aptitude test for selection to the post of ASM /Asstt. Loco Pilot in the Railways. The said specialized examiner examined the candidates and accordingly successful candidates were selected for appointment. The select list was published on 24.9.2008. Further there is no such candidate bearing Roll No. 263171038281 who is alleged not to have answered at all but has found place in the list of successful candidates. The correct roll no. has to be of 14 digits. The allegation averred in paragraph 7 to the application that certain candidates who confessed that they could not answer the questions in the aptitude test correctly but got selected, is absolutely false and baseless and the same is categorically denied by the respondent. Moreover, the ability of a candidate to make a self-assessment about his own performance with absolute confidence in the test is not acceptable as it is not a typical and common from of examination. As such the applicant's charge of malice and favoritism is strongly denied by the answering respondent. Regarding representation of the applicants addressed to EDE(RRB), Railway Board, New Delhi dated 28.09.08 the same has not been received by the deponent.

7. That since the psychological test was done by specialized competent persons and accordingly the select list was published, hence the question of challenging the selection procedure, reassessment/revaluation of answer scripts of the applicants and further to select the successful applicants to the post of Assistant Station Master under category 17 of the advertisement No. 3/2006 has no legal force at all.

8. That the application filed by the applicants are baseless and devoid of merit and as such not tenable in the eye of law and liable to be dismissed with heavy cost.

9. That the application of the applicants is vague after thought and vexatious and the applicants filed the same upon some false and flimsy grounds and as such the applicants are not entitled to any relief claim by them.

10. That in any view of the matter raised in the application and the reasons set forth thereon, there cannot be any cause of action against the respondent and the application is liable to be dismissed with cost.

In the premises aforesaid, it is, therefore, prayed that Your Lordships would be pleased to peruse the records and after hearing the parties be pleased to dismiss the application with cost. And pass such other order/orders as to the Hon'ble Court may deem fit and proper considering the facts and circumstances of the case and for the ends of justice.

And for this the Respondent as in duty bond shall ever pray.

IN THE MATTER OF: -

A rejoinder by the applicants* to the statements made in the written statement filed by the Respondents.

- REJOINDER AFFIDAVIT-

I, Shri Prafulla Ch. Roy, son of Shri Keshab Chandra Roy, aged about 29 years, by profession- unemployed Resident of village- Bhati, P.O. - Nityananda, Pin- 781329 in the district of Barpeta, Assam, do hereby state as follows: -

1. That I am one of the applicants of the accompanying O.A. I am acquainted with the facts and circumstances of the O.A. I have been authorized by the other applicants to verify the statements made in this rejoinder affidavit for and on their behalf.

2. That save and except those statements made in the written statement, which are specifically admitted herein below and the rest of the statements made therein are to be regarded as not admitted and denied by the deponent.

3. That with regard to the statements made in paragraph 3 of the written statement, the deponent reiterates and reaffirms the statements made in paragraphs 1, 2, 3 and 4 of the O.A.

4. That with regard to the statements made in paragraph 4 of the written statement, the deponent states that the applicants had filed the calling letters as annexure with the O.A pursuant to which the applicants appeared for the written interview. The deponent reiterates and reaffirms the statements made in paragraph 5 of the O.A.

5. That the deponent states that the applicants were having all the requisite qualification for the post and they performed extremely well in the written test. All the applicant in the connected O.A. were more than sure to get 70% in the written test. It could have disclosed the marks obtained by the applicants in the O.A. It appears that the written statement has been filed very casually without even going through the relevant record and mark sheets of the applicants. Therefore, this Hon'ble Tribunal may be pleased to call for the record of the selection to find out as to why the applicants were deprived from selection and appointment.

6. That with regard to the statements made in paragraph 6 of the written statement, the deponent states that select list is prepared calculating the marks obtained in the written test and 30% of marks obtained in the psychological test. However, no mark is fixed for the psychological test and consequently it is also not known that what the total marks for the psychological test are. Therefore, if a candidate obtains 70% of marks in the written test, so there is no justification as why his name shall not be appeared in the select list where as-

Select list= Marks obtained in the written test+ 30% of marks Obtained in the psychological test.

On going through the written statement, it appears that the Respondents tried to avoid disclosing what the actual procedure for selection is and at least what is the marks of psychological test. Moreover, it is also appeared that the Respondents adopted an unfair process for selection of candidates which may be interfered by this Hon'ble Tribunal where transparency and good governance are two more ingredients of equality before law as per Article 14 of the Constitution of India.

So far the Roll No. 263171038281 is a typographical error which to be read correctly as 20063171038281.

The information placed before this Hon'ble Court as to the representation dated 28.9.2008 filed by the applicants is not correct. The deponent states that pursuant to the said representation dated 28.9.2008, the Addl. Comptroller, New Delhi instructed the Secretary to the Government of India, Ministry of Railways vide letter dated 10.10.2008 to take action the matter of the representation dated 28.9.2008 and to intimate the same to the deponent. It is very unfortunate on the part of the authority who filed the written statement for not having such information. It appears that the Respondents are trying to mislead this Hon'ble Court and its judicial time by filing such written statement which is not based on relevant information which may lead to miscarriage of justice. Therefore, this Hon'ble Tribunal may be pleased to issue show cause to the said authority for furnishing wrong information before the Hon'ble Tribunal.

A copy of the said letter dated 10.10.2008 is enclosed herewith and marked as Annexure-1.

7. That the deponent denies the statements made in paragraphs 7, 8, 9 and 10 of the written statement. The deponent states that since the applicants are about to receive more than 70% of marks in the written statement, there is no chance for them for not performing well in the psychological test. Since the respondents have failed to disclosed the entire facts and marks obtained by the applicants in their written statement, this Hon'ble may be pleased to find out from the record, what is the illegality committed by the Respondent in the selection process.

The deponent states that their case is having merit.

That the statements made in paragraphs 1 to 7 of the rejoinder affidavit are true to my knowledge and that I have not suppressed any material fact.

I signed this verification this the 27th day of July, 2009 at Guwahati.
