This Tribunal vide order dated 07.09.2009 in OA.173/2009 directed the respondents as under:-

"7. In the aforesaid premises, without entering into the merits of the matter and without any waste of time, we dispose of this case by remitting the matter to the Respondents; who should consider the grievances of the Applicant (the widow of Late Narayan Prasad) by causing necessary enquiry and by calling for reports (through a personal Inspector/Welfare Inspector; who should assist the Applicant in getting the pension papers ready, if necessary) and pass reasoned orders/release the pensionary and other dues (as due and admissible under the Law/Rules/Guidelines/Circulars) in favour of the Applicant and other members of the family of Late Narayan Prasad at the earliest. Entire exercise should be completed by the Respondents by end of December 2009 under intimation to the Applicant."

Mr.M.K.Majumdar, learned standing counsel for the railways submitted that respondents processed the matter for implementation of the order but as the petitioner did not submit the necessary documents matter could not be finalized. It was further submitted by the learned counsel that for proper inspection the Welfare Inspector went to the address given by the petitioner, however, she was not found available in the address. It was submitted that because of non-cooperation of the petitioner respondent authority could not finalize the matter. In view of that learned counsel prayed that learned counsel for the petitioner may be directed to ask the petitioner to assist and cooperate with the railway authorities for expeditious release of her pensionary benefits.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has no objection and undertakes to inform the petitioner appear before the respondent nos.3, & 5, assist and cooperate with the authorities by submitting relevant documents for expeditious release of pensionary benefits as ordered by this Tribunal. It is expected that the petitioner shall cooperate with the concerned authority for release of her pensionary benefits as directed by this Tribunal on 07.09.2009 in OA.173/2009.

With the above direction and observation EP closed. If the petitioner is still aggrieved by the action of the respondents, she is at liberty to approach this Tribunal afresh.

The applicants above named most respectfully beg to state that: -

1. That the applicant approached before this Hon'ble Tribunal through O.A.No. 173/2009 for grant of pensionary benefits, providend fund, group insurance, gratuity money, leave salaries, D.C.R.G. etc. with compound interest from the date of the expired husband of the applicant.

Shumare Prashad.

2. That this Hon'ble Central Administrative Tribunal after hearing the rival submissions of both the parties and after perusal of the materials on records was pleased to disposed of the original application by remitting the matter to the respondents, who should consider the grivences of the applicant (the widow of late Narayan Prasad) by causing necessary enquiry and by calling for reports (through a personal Inspector/Welfare Inspector; who should assist the applicant in getting the pension papers ready, if necessary) and pass reasoned orders/release the pensionery and other dues (as due and admissible under the Law/Rules/Guidelines/Circulars) in favour of the applicant and other members of the family of Late Narayan Prasad at the earliest. Entire exercise should be completed by the respondents by end of December 2009 under intimation to the applicant. We make it clear that, unless very compelling hindrances are there, provisional monthly family pensions, at the minimum rate as due and admissible under the Rules, may be released in favour of the applicant, by the respondents prospectively from the month of September 2009.

A copy of the judgment and order dated 07.09.2009 is enclosed herewith and marked as Annexure- A.

3. That the applicant after receipt of the judgment and order dated 07.09.2009 passed in O.A No. 173/2009 submitted representation on 18.11.2009 addressed to the respondent no. 2 for grant of pensionery benefit and other benefits i.e provident fund, gratuity money, group insurance etc. in favour of the applicant and further prayed for implementation of the judgment and order dated 07.09.2009 passed in O.A No. 173 of 2009.

Copy of the representation dated 18.11.2009 is enclosed herewith and marked as Annexure- B.

4. That the applifcant after found no response from the respondents authority submitted another representation on 01.03.2010 as well as on 21.04.2011 to the respondent no. 3 for implementation of the judgment and order passed by the Hon'ble Tribunal and further prayed for release of pensionery benefits to the applicant. But to no result.

Shumare Prashad

Copy of the representation dtd. 01.03.2010 and 21.04.2011 are enclosed herewith and marked as Annexure- C (series).

5. That the Hon'ble Tribunal in its judgment and order dated 07.09.2009 in O.A. No. 173 of 2009 clearly directed the respondents to consider the grievances of the applicant by causing necessary enquiry and by calling for reports (through a personal Inspector/Welfare Inspector; who should assist the applicant in getting the pension papers ready, if necessary) and pass reasoned orders/release the pensionery and other dues (as due and admissible under the Law/Rules/Guidelines/Circulars) in favour of the applicant and other members of the family of Late Narayan Prasad at the earliest. But after a lapse of more than two years from the date of submission of representation by the applicant, the respondents have not paid any pensionery benefit to the applicant and such action of the respondents is deliberate and willful violation of the direction passed by this Hon'ble Tribunal in O.A No. 173 of 2009. Therefore, finding no other alternative the applicant approaching before this Hon'ble Tribunal for further direction upon the respondents under Rule 24 of Central Administrative Tribunal (Procedure) Rule, 1987 for compliance of the judgment and order dated 07.09.2009 passed in O.A. No. 173/2009 of the Hon'ble Tribunal.
5. That this application is made bonafide and for the ends of justice.

Under the facts and circumstances stated above, the Hon'ble Tribunal be pleased to direct the respondents to implement the judgment and order dated 07.09.2009 passed in O.A. No. 173/2009 passed by the Hon'ble Tribunal forthwith and further be pleased to pass such other order or orders as deemed fit and proper by the Hon'ble Tribunal.

And for this act of kindness, your applicant as in duty bound, shall ever pray.

O.A.173/2009
ORAL ORDER
07/09/2009

MANORANJAN MOHANTY, (V.C.):

1. Applicant claims that her husband (named Narayan Prasad) served under N.F.Railway and, on the strength of an order under Annexure-I dated 03.06.1989 (an incomplete document) issued from the office of DRM(P)/Lumding, he was taken from the post of Khalasi/NGC to the post of F/Khal/NGC; that he was allotted Quarter No.230-E Type-II (newly constructed) at NGC by an office Order under Annexure-II dated 13.09.1988 of the AME/Guwahati; that he was promoted as a Fitter Grade-II on 23.02.1989; that he remained sick from 14.10.1996 to 21.04.1997 (as certified by Doctor under Annexure-IV dated 17.04.1994) and that he died on 12.06.1997 (as is seen in the Death Certificate under Annexure-V dated 01/05.12.1997 and under Annexure-VII dated 21.10.1997) prematurely.

2. Applicant has also placed on record (i) a copy of the certificate (at page 26 of this O.A.) showing that she vacated the Quarter (No.230-E) on 05.05.2001 and (ii) a copy of the Medical Card (as Annexure-XI dated 12.04.1987) to show the family structure during 1987: relevant portion of which reads as under:-

| Sl. No. | Name of Family Members | Relationship | Age as on 1-1-81 |
|---------|------------------------|--------------|------------------|
| 1       | Narayan Prasad         | Self         | 24 yrs.          |
| 2       | Smt. Sukumani Prasad   | Wife         | 19 yrs.          |
| 3       | Smt. Nanki Debi        | W/Mother     | 46 yrs.          |
| 4       | Smt. Purnima Debi      | D/Sister     | 16 yrs.          |
| 5       | Kanmai Prasad          | D/Sister     | 14 yrs           |

3. Applicant claims, further, that she represented to DRM(P)/Lumding under Annexure-VI dated 03.07.1997 seeking pensionary and other benefits; that her subsequent representation (addressed to DRM(P)/Lumding through SSE/LOCO/NGC) was duly forwarded under Annexure-VIII dated 13.07.2000; that she submitted another representation addressed to DRM(P)/Lumding under Annexure-IX dated 04.11.2005 and that she finally addressed a representation to General Manager of N.F.Railway/DRM(P) Lumding/Sr.CDO of NFRailway at Guwahati/DPO of N.F.Railway at Guwahati under Annexure-X dated 19.05.2009 covering the following prayer/subject:-

"Prayer for require the outstanding all benefits i.e. Provident Fund, Gratuity Money, Group Insurance etc. whatever else, including Bank interest due to the applicant husband died in harness on 12/6/97 under N.F.Railway, and his post was Fitter/Loco/Gd-II and secondly grievance is compassionate ground appointment render to applicant's elder son namely, Bishnu Prasad in respect of livelihood the whole family of aggrieved applicant. Because there is no any earning member of applicant family."

4. With allegation of not hearing from the Respondents, the Applicant has approached this Tribunal by way of filing the present Original Application under Section 19 of the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985; wherein she has prayed to direct the Respondents to release her pensionary benefits, DCRG- gratuity money, provident fund amount, group insurance money and leave salaries of her husband and other dues (with compound interest from the date of death of her husband) as early as possible and to pass such other order/orders as deem fit and proper in the interest of justice.

5. Heard Mr.R.C.Das, learned counsel appearing for the Applicant, and Dr.J.L.Sarkar learned Standing counsel for the Railways, (to whom a copy of this Original Application has already been supplied) and perused the materials placed on record.

6. From Annexure-VIII dated 13.07.2000, it appears that Late Narayan Prasad died on 12.06.1997 leaving behind 2 minor children with his widow-the Applicant. It is the positive case of the Applicant that all her representations (as aforesaid) have not yet been attended to by the Respondents for release of pensionary and other benefits/dues payable to the Applicant and the family of Late Narayan Prasad. The Applicant has, however, not disclosed about submission of pension papers for release of family pension to her.

7. In the aforesaid premises, without entering into the merits of the matter and without any waste of time, we dispose of this case by remitting the matter to the Respondents; who should consider the grievances of the Applicant (the widow of Late Narayan Prasad) by causing necessary enquiry and by calling for reports (through a personal Inspector/Welfare Inspector; who should assist the Applicant in getting the pension papers ready, if necessary) and pass reasoned orders/release the pensionary and other dues (as due and admissible under the Law/Rules/Guidelines/Circulars) in favour of the Applicant and other members of the family of Late Narayan Prasad at the earliest. Entire exercise should be completed by the Respondents by end of December 2009 under intimation to the Applicant. We make it clear that, unless very compelling hindrances are there, provisional monthly family pensions, at the minimum rate as due and admissible under the Rules, may be released in favour of the Applicant, by the Respondents prospectively from the month of September 2009.
