applicant's case from the respondent No. 1 for proper adjudication of the matter, in the interest of justice.

(iii) That, any other relief may deems fit and proper may also be awarded in favour of the applicant, in the interest of justice."

2. The applicant has based his entire case on the judgment of Pritam Singh annexed as Annexure A-1 to the OA. It is submitted by the applicant that he has already given a representation to the authorities (page 15 and Annexure A-6 at page 19) but till date no reply has been given, therefore, he was left with no other option but to approach this Tribunal.

3. We have heard learned counsel for the applicant and had suggested to him that if he wants proper adjudication of the matter by the authorities, he should give a self contained representation alongwith all the judgments which he has relied upon in his representation dated 2.11.2004, so that the authorities may apply their mind to his request and pass appropriate orders thereon. The learned counsel for the applicant has submitted that he is relying only on the judgment of Pritam Singh, which he has already annexed to this OA. Therefore, let directions be given to the respondents to atleast consider this representation and decide it by passing a speaking order.

4. In the OA as well as in the representation applicant has relied upon several judgments including that of Pritam Singh, but except the judgment of Pritam Singh decided on 2.5.94 no other judgments have been annexed by him.

5. We are still giving liberty to the applicant to file a self contained representation alongwith all the judgments which he wishes to rely upon, within two weeks from the date of receipt of copy of this order to the authorities, by giving the details of his own service particulars and explaining how he is entitled to get the benefit of the said judgments.

6. In case applicant gives such a representation to the respondent No. 3, the respondent No. 3 shall consider his representation and decide the same by passing a speaking and detailed order within a period of four months under intimation to the applicant.

7. With the above direction, this OA stands disposed of.
