By A.K. Gaur, Judicial Member -

By means of this contempt petition the petitioner has alleged that the respondents have wilfully disobeyed the orders and direction passed by this Tribunal in O.A. No. 146 of 2005 dated 9th March, 2006.

2. We have carefully seen the record of the case and we are of the considered opinion that the order and direction of this Tribunal has fully been complied with by the respondents by passing the order in pursuance thereof. Although the time stipulated for compliance of the order was three months but the respondents have passed the order after four months. It is settled principle of law that in a civil contempt <sup>at the moment they</sup> when the direction given by the Tribunal is complied with, the grievance of the petitioner would disappear, even though the order and direction of the Tribunal has been complied with some delay.

3. In view of the above, no case of wilful disobedience is made out and the contempt petition is dismissed.
