2. The respondents have filed an affidavit which states as follows:

“1. It is most humbly submitted that the relief sought by the petitioners in OA No. 1026/2005 is being sanctioned by the competent authorities and has accorded approval for regularization of the petitioners. The grievances of the petitioners have been redressed and action is in hand to regularize the services of the petitioners after following the procedural formalities.”

3. The learned counsel for the applicants has also admitted that the applicants have already been appointed and their cases for regularization are being finalized.

4. In view of this, the Original Application has <sup>been</sup> rendered <sup>G</sup> infructuous and is dismissed as infructuous. The applicants are
