As prayed for by the applicant, the original answer book of the applicant was ~~also~~ produced by the learned counsel for the respondents for perusal of this Tribunal. The answer sheet was shown to the applicant, who is present personally in the court. She has confirmed that the answer sheet was <sup>in her</sup> ~~of his~~ own hand writing and is the same which she had written in the examination.

2. The main contention of the applicant is that she has the apprehension that the answer sheet had been changed that is why she <sup>Q</sup> had asked for perusal of the same. However, she has now confirmed that the answer sheet is the same. We have also seen that all the questions have been marked and she has secured less than 60 marks because of which she could not make to the selection stage.

3. We have heard the arguments advanced by the parties. We find that in view of the above, the OA is devoid of merit and it is accordingly dismissed. No costs.
