..... Applicant (s)

VERSUS

..... Respondent (s)

A copy of the ORDER dated 10.3.05. passed by the Hon'ble Tribunal in the above mentioned case is forwarded herewith for necessary action.

10.03.2005

Applicant by Shri V. Tripathi on behalf of Shri S. Paul.

Respondents by Shri K.N. Pethia.

Heard both the parties.

The learned counsel for the respondents states that the order of the Tribunal dated 2.9.2004 has been complied with and the respondents have decided the representation of the applicant vide order dated 6.10.2004. (J)
Hence, this CCP has become infructuous as the order has been complied with.

The learned counsel for the applicant stated that the Tribunal has granted stay on the transfer order till the representation was decided by the respondents. They have taken very long time to decide the representation and in the meantime the applicant was not allowed to work at the original place of work and therefore the respondents to that extent has not complied with the direction given by the Tribunal.

Since the direction given by the Tribunal although at a belated stage have been complied with this CCP has become infructuous and is dismissed as infructuous. Notices issued are discharged. However, if the applicant is still aggrieved he may file a fresh CP, if so advised.
