O R D E R (Oral)

By Madan Mohan, Judicial Member -

Heard the learned counsel for the parties.

2. By filing this Original Application the applicants have claimed the following main relief :

"(ii) command the respondents to decide the representation of the applicants as directed by this Hon'ble Tribunal in OA No. 274/2004 before finalising the panel in question."

3. Today, the learned counsel for the respondents has filed a Misc. Application No. 932/2004, enclosing a copy of the order dated 27th July, 2004 (Annexure D-1), whereby the respondents have considered and disposed of the representation of the applicants dated 6.8.2003. He further submitted that in view of the order passed by the respondents this Original Application has become infructuous as the only/main relief claimed direct the respondents to by the applicants is to dispose of the said representation of the applicants. A copy of the MA alongwith the said order is also served on the learned counsel for the applicants.

4. Hence, in view of the orders passed by the respondents, we find that the Original Application has become infructuous. Accordingly, the Original Application is dismissed as infructuous. No costs.
