APPLICANT

(By Advocate - Shri S. Ganguli on behalf of Shri M. Sharma)

VERSUS

1. Union of India,
Through Secretary/Director General of Post Offices, Department of Posts, Central Secretariat,

New Delhi.

RESPONDENTS

(By Advocate - Shri P. Shankaran)

O R D E R (ORAL)

By M.P. Singh, Vice Chairman -

The applicant has filed this OA for <sup>seeking</sup> following main reliefs :-

- (ii) To quash the impugned order dated 3.1.03
(Annexure-A-1)
- (iii) To direct the respondents to grant One time Bound Promotion (OTBP) to the applicant by counting services rendered in the Department or Rehabilitation with effect from 3.10.1970
and consequently the benefit of OTBP effective 3.10.1986 with all consequential benefits of pay, perks, status and arrears thereof with appropriate rate of interest till its realization.

2. The brief facts of the case are that the applicant joined the respondents Department on 13.5.1977 as Postal Assistant. Prior to joining the Respondents Department, the applicant was initially appointed as Primary Teacher in

Mana Camp under the Department of Rehabilitation, Govt. of India on 3.10.1970. The applicant is eligible to get promotion under the One Time Bound Promotion Scheme (for short OTBP) after completion of 16 years of service. For the purpose of granting the benefit of <sup>One</sup> Time Bound ~~One~~ Promotion, the respondents Department is not reckoning the service rendered by the applicant in the erstwhile Department. According to the applicant, certain similarly placed persons, who were also denied the same benefit of not counting the services rendered by them in erstwhile department, approached the court and matter travelled up to the Apex Court, The Apex Court vide its judgment dated 15.12.1998 rendered in Civil Appeal No. 3093/1998 in the matter of Dwijen Chandrase Sarkar and Anr. vs. Union of India and Ors., reported in 1999 Vol.II SCC 129, has held that the benefit of past services of such employees <sup>are</sup> to be given for the limited purpose of eligibility for computing the number of years of qualifying service to enable them to get the higher grade under the OTBP Scheme. Since the respondents have not given the aforesaid benefit to the applicant, he has filed the present O.A. <sup>claiming</sup> ~~for~~ the aforesaid reliefs.

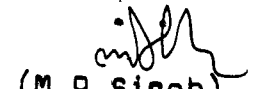

3. Heard the learned counsel for the parties.

4. The learned counsel for the applicant states that it is a covered matter by the order of the Tribunal passed on 15.07.2002 in O.A. No. 407/2000 and the applicant is, therefore, entitled for the benefit of counting his service rendered by him in the erstwhile department for promotion under OTBP Scheme. On the other hand, the learned counsel for the respondents states that since the applicant was not <sup>a</sup> party in that O.A., he cannot be granted the same benefit.

5. We have considered the rival contentions of the parties and we find that it is not in dispute that the applicant is also similarly situated as applicant in OA No. 407/2002 wherein the Tribunal has directed the respondents vide its order dated 15.7.2002 to count his past service rendered by the applicant in the erstwhile department for the purpose of promotion to the applicant under the OTBP Scheme. Since the applicant is similarly placed, he should also be granted the same benefit by counting his erstwhile service rendered in Rehabilitation Department, Govt. of India for the purpose of granting promotion under OTBP Scheme. Accordingly, the respondents are directed to pass the necessary orders to this effect within a period of three months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. No costs.
