By Anand Kumar Bhatt, Administrative Member -

This Original Application has been presented by the applicant for promotion as Skilled Artisan Grade-III. He has also requested to direct the respondents to arrange for one year in-service training before conducting the Trade Test. We asked the learned counsel for the applicant to show us any rule in regard to pre-trade test training, but he could not produce any such instructions of the Railways. The representation which has been filed by him to the Railways has not been decided as yet.

2. Heard the learned counsel for the applicant and Shri M.N. Banerjee, Standing Counsel for the Railways and also perused the records.

3. We feel that ends of justice would be met at this stage if the applicant is asked to give a detailed representation to the competent authority within 15 days from the receipt of the order of the Tribunal and the competent authority in the Railways shall decide the representation within a period of 3 months from the date of receipt of such representation. Accordingly ordered.

4. The original Application stands disposed of accordingly. An in limine
