O R D E R (Oral)

By Shri Sarveshwar Jha, Member (A)

Heard both the learned counsel for the applicant as well as of the respondents.

2. At the very outset, it has transpired that the candidature of the applicant for appearing at the examination for admission to the BCORC 2002-2003 (Vocational Scheme) course was cancelled on account of the fact that the hand writing of the applicant was found to be different as available in the application form and further in the examination as well as during the course of verification of documents. It is also observed that the applicant has not given or submitted any representation to the respondents in the matter. It is also observed that the respondents have not carried out any further investigation or verification about whether the hand-writing of the applicant as available in the answer sheet is that of the person who appeared before them with the certificates etc.

3. In the circumstances, we are of the considered opinion that the matter has not been given a very careful consideration by the respondents before they passed the order dated 4.6.2002. The learned counsel for the respondents, Shri M.N. Banerjee is also of the view that the applicant should have represented to the authorities before he approached this Tribunal with this Original Application.

4. We, therefore, dispose of this O.A. at this stage itself, after considering the submission as made above and after having gone through the materials on record, with directions to the respondents to treat ~~this~~ O.A. as a representation of the applicant and to consider the matter after verifying the hand-writing of the applicant by other suitable means as considered appropriate by them and to issue a reasoned order in this regard within a period of two months from the date of receipt of a copy of this Order. Applicant is directed to file a copy of this O.A. with the respondents within a period of seven days from today. No costs.

Inventory of the
