O R D E R (ORAL)

By D.C. Verma, Vice Chairman (J) -

By this original application the applicant has prayed for quashing of the suspension order dated 24/06/2002 (Annexure A/1) and the consequential relieving order dated 10/07/2002 (Annexure A/11). It was also prayed that the applicant be allowed to continue in Jawahar Navodaya Vidyalaya, Ramkiriya, Panna. By way of interim order this Tribunal by its order dated 22/01/2003 ordered that subject to hearing the other side, the headquarters of the applicant shall remain at Ramkhiriya as has been ordered by the Hon'ble High Court in the case of her husband.

2. The respondents have now passed an order dated 16th April 2003, by which the suspension order dated 24/06/2002 impugned in the present case has been revoked with immediate effect pending completion of inquiry proceedings. Consequently the main relief claimed in the petition stands redressed. It is further ordered that on revocation of suspension the applicant is posted to Jawahar Navodaya Vidyalaya, Distt : Damoh (M.P.), and also has been allowed the transfer benefits as per the rules of the Samiti. The submission of the learned counsel for the applicant is that the husband of the present applicant was also suspended and a petition of the applicant's husband is pending before the Hon'ble High Court, whereby an interim order is given as given in the present case.

3. The learned counsel for the respondents Shri Namdeo submitted that a <sup>similar</sup> order as passed in respect of the present applicant on 16th April 2003, has also been passed in respect of the husband of the applicant which the respondents proposed to file before the Hon'ble High Court and the applicant's husband is also been posted to Damoh.

4. <sup>in</sup> Considering the above facts we are of the view that the present original application, so far the main relief stands redressed. However in case the applicant has any grievance with regard to her transfer to Damoh, it would be open for her to challenge the order dated 16th April 2003 to that extent, if so adviged. The learned counsel for the applicant submits that for the suspension period the applicant has not been paid any subsistence allowance. The same is for the respondents to examine and pass an appropriate order within a period of one month from the date of receipt of copy of this order and the same shall be communicated to the applicant promptly.

This original application stands decided accordingly.
