By R.K. Upadhyaya, Admnv. Member :-

The applicant has claimed payment of interest at market rate at the rate of 24% on delayed payment of part of General Provident Fund. The learned counsel of the respondents stated that the applicant has been paid the entire amount due to him alongwith interest at the rate of 12%. Therefore this application claiming interest at the rate of 24% is misconceived and devoid of any merits deserves to be dismissed as infructuous. The learned counsel of the respondents stated that the applicant retired on 01/04/1997. However he did not submit ^{the details on-ly} the claims of payment of retiral dues in time. He submitted on 24/05/1997. The respondents have paid interest of 4 months as admitted by the applicant. If the formal details as required are submitted only in the month of May, sometime is to be allowed for its processing. The payment has been made in the month of November 1997 and the ^{interest} payment has been made for 4 months from July to October 1997. In our considered view, the action of the respondents does not call for any interference and this application being frivolous and without any substantial cause of action is dismissed under rule 15(1) of the CAT (Procedure) Rules. There shall be no order as to costs.
