The applicants have prayed for payment of retiral benefits. There was a dispute regarding status of the applicant as two legally wedded has made the claim for retiral benefits. Therefore the respondents have finally distributed the gratuity in equal share to all the family members and the family pension 50% to the wife and 50% to the surviving heirs. It appears that the grievances of the applicants have been redressed. Accordingly, under Rule 15 of CAT(Procedure) Rules, the OA has been dismissed in the above terms.
