ORDER (ORAL)

Learned counsel for applicant has filed this OA, thereby, challenging the order dated 30.9.2010(Annexure A-1). Against this order the applicant has also filed appeal on 30.10.2010(Annexure A-
2) before the appellant authority.

2. In view of the law laid down by the Apex Court in the case of
Shri S.S.Rathore Vs. Sate of Madhya Pradesh AIR 1990 SCC at page 10, the cause of action in such matter shall arise when final order on by the statutory appeal/ revision is passed by the competent authority and not from the date of the original order of disciplinary authority.

3. Thus, in view of the law laid down by the Apex Court, the present OA is pre-mature and the same cannot be entertained at this stage. However, keeping in view of the facts and circumstances of the case that appeal of the applicant dated 30.10.2010 is pending before the appellant authority, we are of the view that ends of justice will be met if the said appeal is disposed of as expeditiously <sup>as u</sup> possible ~~as~~ within a period of three months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order by passing a speaking and reasoned order.

4. In view of what has been stated above, the OA stands disposed of with no order as to costs. Needless to add that in case the applicant is still aggrieved by the order to be passed by the appellant authority/revisional authority, it will be permissible for him to file a substantive OA for the same cause of action.
