The case of the applicant is that pursuant to the advertisement (Annex.A/3), applicant applied for the post of Constable (GD) for Rajasthan State, and was declared successful in the written examination and also passed the Physical Efficiency Test. The applicant was called for medical examination vide admission certificate for medical dated 07.07.2011 (Annex. A/6). the applicant was not medically examined. It is stated at the bar that medical examinations are going <sup>on</sup> and looking to the urgency of the matter since it is the matter <sup>of</sup> appointment on the post of Constable (GD), we deem it proper to direct the respondent(s) that in case the applicant files the representation, the same may be considered expeditiously, so that he can be medically examined, if he is otherwise found eligible, but not later than within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of the representation from the applicant along with a copy of this order.
