2. Since all the contempt petitions have been filed for the non-compliance of the order of the Tribunal dated 17.10.12 in OA No.547/2011 and other connected matters, therefore, with the consent of the parties, all these contempt petitions are being disposed off by a common order. (iv) No order as to the costs."

4. A bare perusal of this order makes it clear that the applicants before the Jodhpur Bench were allowed the payment @1/30th of the pay at the minimum of the time scale of Group-D staff plus DA i.e. Rs.292- per day as basic pay w.e.f. 1.7.2008 with all consequential benefits. Whereas the respondents in the present case have allowed the payment of Rs.292 w.e.f. 1.6.2011. Thus if the compliance report submitted by the respondents at Annexure R/I is accepted then there would be two sets of employees getting different pay though both sets of employees are similarly situated. One set of employees who agitated their grievances before CAT Jodhpur Bench would be getting the daily wages of Rs.292 per day w.e.f. 1.7.2008 while the second set of employees who agitated their grievance before CAT, Jaipur Bench would be getting the daily wages of Rs.292 per day w.e.f. 1.6.2011.

5. The learned counsel for the petitioners further submitted that Para 7 of the order dated 17.10.2012 in OA No.547/2011 and other connected matters is an observation and not a direction. The direction is contained in Para 10 of the order (which has been quoted in Para 3 above of this order). Therefore, compliance report submitted by the respondents should not be accepted and the respondents be directed to allow the applicants daily wages @ Rs.292 per day w.e.f. 1.7.2008.

6. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the order of the CAT Jodhpur-Bench dated 14.08.2012 has been upheld by the Hon'ble High Court of Rajasthan, Jodhpur Bench, Jodhpur and the order of CAT Bench-Jaipur dated 17.10.2012 has also been upheld by the Hon'ble High Court, Rajasthan, Jaipur Bench, Jaipur.

7. On the other hand the learned counsel for respondents submitted that the directions of this Tribunal are contained in Para 7 of the order dated 17.10.2012 in OA No.547/2011 and other connected matters. He submitted that CAT Bench, Jaipur having considered the order dated 14.8.2012 of the CAT, Jodhpur Bench quashed the impugned order dated 31.5.2011 and directed the respondents to continue making payment to the applicants @ Rs.292 per day instead of Rs.164 per day from the date when lesser payment of Rs.164 per day was paid to the applicants. The Tribunal further directed that the applicants are also entitled to arrears of lesser payment paid by the respondents.

8. The learned counsel for the respondents further submitted that there is no directions in Para 10 of the order of the CAT dated 17.10.2012. It only states that OAs are disposed in view of the judgment rendered by Division Bench of the CAT-Jodhpur Bench vide its order dated 14.8.2012 and since the OAs were disposed of in view of the order of the CAT Jodhpur Bench, therefore, the judgment of CAT-Jodhpur Bench was to be treated as part of the order dated 17.10.2012. The Jaipur Bench has not gone into details of the merits of the OA independently and it relied on the order dated 14.8.2012 of the CAT-Jodhpur Bench while quashing the impugned order dated 31.5.2011, therefore, it was necessary that the order of CAT Jodhpur Bench dated 14.8.2012 be made a part of the order dated 17.10.2012 of CAT - Jaipur Bench. There is no directions of CAT Jaipur Bench to the respondents to pay daily wages Rs.292 per day to the petitioners w.e.f. 1.7.2008. He further argued that even the prayer of the applicants in OA is to pay Rs.292 per day w.e.f. 1.6.2011. Therefore, the respondents have fully complied with the order dated 17.10.2012 passed in OA No.547/2011 and other connected matters. Therefore, contempt petitions be dismissed and notices be discharged.

9. Heard the learned counsels for the parties and perused the documents on record.

10. We have carefully perused the order passed by this bench dated 17.10.2012 in OA No.547/2011 and other connected matters. We are of the opinion that the directions of the Tribunal to the respondents are given in Para 7. Para 7 of the order is quoted below:

> "Para 7: Having considered the rival submissions of the respective parties and upon careful perusal of the material available on record and the relief claimed by the applicants, so far as the relief claimed by the applicants to quash and set aside the impugned order dated 31.5.2011 is concerned, the judgment rendered by the CAT-Jodhpur Bench is fully applicable as the Division Bench of the CAT-Jodhpur has already quashed and set aside the impugned order dated 31.5.11. Therefore, having considered the order dated 14.8.12 of the CAT-Jodhpur Bench, so far as the impugned order dated 31.5.11 is concerned, the same is quashed and set aside and respondents are directed to continue making payment to the applicants @ Rs.292 per day instead of Rs.164 per day from the date when lesser payment of Rs.164 per day is paid to the applicants. The applicants are also entitled to arrears of lesser payment paid by the respondents."

From the reading of this Para it is clear that the impugned order dated 31.5.11 was quashed and set aside and the respondents were directed to continue making payment to the applicants @ Rs.292 per day instead of Rs.164 from the date when lesser payment of Rs.164/- per day was paid to the applicants. The applicants were also entitled to arrears of lesser payment paid by the respondents.

11. In so far as contention of the learned counsels for the applicants that the order at Annexure R/1 were to be accepted as compliance of the orders of this Tribunal in respect of which disobedience is alleged in the above batch of contempt petitions then there would be two sets of employees getting different pay though both the sets of employees are similarly situated and one set of employees who agitated their grievances before C.A.T., Jodhpur Bench would be getting the daily wages of Rs. 292/- per day with effect from 01.07.2008 while second set of employees who agitated their grievances before C.A.T., Jaipur Bench would be getting the daily wages of Rs.292/- per day with effect from 01.06.2011. In sum and substance, the argument of the learned counsels for the applicants is that the order passed by the respondents at Annexure R/1 results in discriminating the applicants since they are not treated on par with the other employees. We may observe that this contention may be a ground for them to get a relief on par with that of the applicants before C.A.T., Jodhpur Bench but the same can not be a ground to further proceed in the contempt proceedings. The settled position of law is that in a contempt proceedings what is required to be gone into is whether there is substantial compliance or not or whether there is willful disobedience on the part of respondents. Hence we are not inclined to accept the arguments of the learned counsels for the applicants.

12. We are inclined to agree with the submission made by the learned counsel for the respondents that Para 10 of this order does not give any direction to the respondents. The OAs were disposed off in view of the order of CAT-Jodhpur Bench. This Bench has not gone into merits of the order dated 31.5.2011 before quashing the said order. This Bench quashed the impugned order dated 31.5.2011 relying on the orders of CAT Jodhpur Bench. Therefore, the judgment of CAT-Jodhpur Bench was to be treated as part of the order dated 17.10.2012.

13. We have also perused the pleadings in original application of the petitioners under the relief clause. Relief clause 8.2 is quoted below :

> " It is further prayed that by a suitable writ/order or the direction the respondents be directed to pay the arrears of the per day wages with the rate of Rs.292/- per day with effect from 1.6.2011 and onwards and the respondents also be directed to pay the arrears with effect from 1.6.202011."

Thus the prayer of the petitioners themselves was for the payment of arrears w.e.f. 1.6.2011.

14. Therefore, we are of the view that the respondents have substantially complied with the orders dated 17.10.2012 passed in OA No.547/2011 and other connected matters of this Tribunal and, therefore, no contempt is made out.

15. Hence, contempt petitions are dismissed. Notices issued to the respondents are discharged. A copy of this order be placed on the files of CP No. 18/2013, 19/2013, 20/2013, 21/2013, 22/2013, 23/2013, 24/2013, 25/2013, 26/2013, 27/2013, 28/2013, 32/2013, 33/2013, 34/2013, 35/2013, 36/2013, 37/2013 and 38/2013. However, it is made clear that if the petitioners still have a grievance then they are at liberty to seek the redressal of their grievance before the appropriate forum.
