2. This Original Application has been filed by the applicant seeking the following reliefs:

"Reliefs"

- (i) That this Original Application may kindly be accepted and allowed and the impugned order dated 21.02.2013 (Annex. A/1) and Condition 'H' inserted in the Interview Schedule (Ann. - (ii) Any other order, direction or relief which this Hon'ble Tribunal deems fit and proper in the facts and circumstances of the present case, may kindly be passed in favour of the applicant.

(iii) Costs of the Original Application may kindly be awarded in favour of the applicant."

3. This case was considered yesterday. According to the learned counsel for the parties, perusal of the interim order of this Tribunal dated 26.06.2013 in this OA, the applicant has already appeared in the examination / interview. The learned counsel for the respondents has also submitted that it is necessary to go into the merit of the case only if the applicant has succeeded in the said examination/interview. The respondents were, therefore, directed to produce the result of the applicant in a sealed cover. Accordingly, the learned counsel for the respondents has produced the result of the applicant in sealed cover today and I have perused the same. Unfortunately, the result is not in favour of the applicant. When the applicant secured 121 marks out of 200 marks under the OBC category the last selected candidate has secured 126 marks out of 200 marks.

4. In view of the aforesaid position, this Original Application is dismissed. The result of the applicant has also been returned to the learned counsel for the respondents. There shall be no order as to costs.
