ORDER

PER HON'BLE MR. K.B. SURESH, JUDICIAL MEMBER

Heard. Alongwith the applicant's application for employment, the photocopy of certificate produced by the applicant did not bear the proper attestation at the relevant point of time. However, the applicant seems to have produced the original documents also at verification. The officer concerned did not check the original document on the ground that the photocopy produced earlier was not attested properly. The officer of the respondents must be aware that right of life of a person is secure under constitutional provisions and must also bear in mind that it is not the technical issues that matter but the actuality of the situation. We, therefore, quash the impugned order dated 29.07.2013 (Annexure A/1), directing the respondents to examine the original record of the applicant. Therefore, the applicant shall present himself on 03rd October, 2013 at 10.00 AM before the concerned authority, who shall examine the correctness of the documents and if found correct, the consequences to follow.

2. The OA is allowed to this limited extent with no order as to costs.
