28.11.2014

Present: Mr. Amit Chopra, counsel for the petitioner
Mr. Arvind Moudgil, counsel for the respondents

1. Learned counsel for the respondents submits that in terms of the directions of this Court, the respondents have considered the case of the petitioner, along with other eligible candidates, for appointment on compassionate grounds in the meeting held on 28.10.2014 and now a formal order is to be passed. He further submits that the respondents have to seek certain documents from all the candidates and after receiving thereof, the necessary order will be issued, therefore, they may be granted six weeks' time for the purpose.
2. Considering the above, we are of the view that there is no willful and deliberate disobedience on the part of the respondents of the order of this Court. The respondents are granted six weeks' time, as prayed for, for issuance of necessary order in compliance of the orders of this Court.
3. In view of the above, the CP is disposed of at this stage, as having been satisfied, with liberty to the petitioner to get its revival if the necessary compliance is not made within the period aforementioned.
4. Notices stand discharged.
