It may be worth to mention here that, while granting the above relief to the applicants

the Hon'ble Tribunal granted the relief only to the applicant No.1 ,Gadadhar Bania due to some technical defect of the application.

3) That your petitioner begs to state that , while granting the House ~~W~~ Rent Allowance the Respondents are directed to pay the above allowance from 01-10-86 to 30-01-95 . No. 181/95 on 11-01-96 which has been numbered as Special Leave Petition No. 10099-10101 of 1997 . But in this Special Leave Petition which was filed by the Union of India the Respondents have made the parties to all the 108 (one hundred eight) applicants of the O.A. which was filed before the Hon'ble Tribunal, Guwahati Bench. The case was contested by the 108 (One Hundred Eight) applicants before the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India and the case was finally heard and disposed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India on 11-08- 97 . The Hon'ble Supreme Court by its judgment directed the Union of India that the present appeals are fully covered by the Civil Appeal No. 1572/97, Union of India -Vs- B. Prasad, B.S.O. & others. From the above Supreme Court Judgment it transpires that the Hon'ble Supreme Court has granted the above allowance of ~~Sxx~~ House Rent Allowance to all the 108 (One Hundred Eight) applicants of the Original Application No. 181/95 filed before the Hon'ble Tribunal Guwahati Bench as all the applicants are Defence Civilian Employees.

No. 181/95 filed before the Hon'ble court the Respondents/contemners have deliberately not complied the judgment & order with a motive behind and no steps have yet taken for paying the relief given by the Hon'ble Tribunal as well as the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India to the petitioners.

7) That your petitioner begs to state that the Respondents/Contemners have shown complete disregard, disobedience to ~~X~~ this Hon'ble Court/s and have not cared to carry out the judgment and direction passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court and the Hon'ble Tribunal till today. This amounts serious contempt of court and they deserve the punishment for willfull disregard and disobedience for non-implementation of the judgment & order passed by the Hon'ble Tribunal and the Apex Court.

By Advocate Shri S. Ali, Sr. C.G.S.C.

ORDER

CHAUDHARI J. V.C.

Mr D.K. Biswas for the applicant.

Mr S. Ali, Sr. C.G.S.C., for the respondents.

This application is purported to be filed on behalf of 108 Defence civilian employees by one Gadhadhar Bonia whose name alone appears in the title claiming House Rent Allowance (HRA) on the strength of the earlier judgment and order of this Tribunal in O.A.NO.48/89 dated 29.3.1994. The title mentions the name of only one person. The O.A. is also signed by him alone. The verification is also made only on behalf of the said Gadhadhar Bonia and not others. The Vakalatnama is attached to a list containing 111 names. Against those names the persons concerned appear to have signed except in respect of some of the names. Some names are also deleted. Even though the Vakalatnama may have been signed in this manner it is difficult to treat the application as filed by all of the persons for whom the application is purported to be filed. Even otherwise the list together with the signatures does not appear to have been served on the respondents and thus they had no opportunity to verify the correctness of the particulars of the persons mentioned in the list.

2. It is also not prayed in the application that the applicants have joined together in filing the single application and should be allowed to do so. No application has been filed for leave under Rule 45(a) of the Central Administrative Tribunal (Procedure) Rules, 1987, nor any leave has been obtained. We cannot, therefore, regard the application as being properly constituted and we would not, therefore, be entitled to exercise our jurisdiction in law. Mr S. All, learned counsel for the respondents, also raised the objection that the application is not maintainable in this form. Procedure can be relaxed or non-compliance therewith can be condoned in the interest of justice, but that can be done only when a properly constituted application is brought before the Tribunal and only after which it will be in a position to exercise its jurisdiction for that purpose. In the present circumstances, unfortunate as it is, ^{though} the whole difficulty may have arisen because of the inadvertence on the part of the learned Advocate, that cannot be rectified having regard to the position in law. Consequently, we are constrained to confine the order only to the extent of the applicant whose name appears in the title, namely, Gadhadhar Bonla, leaving it open to the other persons who purportedly are applicants to file separate applications in accordance with law and the rules. ~~The order now passed may be considered to be extended after such applications have been filed.~~

3. The applicant, Gadhadhar Bonla, who is a civilian Defence employee posted in Field Area under respondent No.3 has made a claim for HRA in the same manner as directed in the judgment of this Tribunal in O.A.No.50/89 dated 29.3.1994 to the applicants in that case on the ground that he is similarly entitled to be paid the same.

4. Mr S. All, learned counsel for the respondents, adopts the contentions urged by the respondents in O.A.No.177/95 seeking permission to do so although written statement has not been filed in the instant application. Permission accordingly granted. The question involved in this O.A. being the same as in O.A.No.177/95 we adopt the same reasons as recorded in the order separately passed on O.A.No.177/95 today and pass similar order. Hence following order is passed:

i) The respondents are directed to pay HRA to the applicant at the rate as was applicable to him by reference to the place of his posting as prescribed under the O.M. dated 23.9.1986 with effect from 1.10.1986 or from the actual date of appointment (whichever is later) upto 28.10.1991 and at the rate as may be applicable from time to time as from 1.3.1991 (under O.M.No.2(II)93-E-2(B) dated 14.5.1993) upto date and continue to pay the same at the rates as may be prescribed thereafter till 30.10.1995 and as from 1.11.1995 onwards under the appropriate orders of the Government of India as to the rate if it is altered.

ii) The respondents shall ascertain the rates applicable at different periods of time and calculate the arrears on that basis. The arrears shall be paid within a period of three months from the date of communication of this order to the respondents. Future payment to be regulated as per the existing rate as may have been prescribed. Any amount as may have been paid to the applicant towards HRA during the aforesaid period will be adjusted in the arrears.

5. The original application is allowed in terms of the aforesaid order. No order as to costs.

6. This order is confined to the applicant in the name of the title, i.e. Gadhadhar Bonia, with liberty to the other persons to file separate applications if so advised as indicated earlier.

O R D E R

Leave granted. We have heard learned counsel for the parties.

These appeals by special leave arise from the various orders passed by the Central Administrative Tribunal, Gauhati Bench in different matters. The main order was passed on 17.11.1995 in RA No. 4/95 in OA
 No. 49/89.

The Government of India have been issuing orders from time to time for payment of allowances and facilities for civilian employees of the Central Government servants working in the States and Union Territories of the North-eastern region. It is not in dispute that Special Duty Allowance was ordered by the Government @ 25% of the basic pay subject to a ceiling of Rs.400/- per month on posting on any station in the North-eastern region. Subsequently, the Government have been issuing orders from time to time. In the proceedings dated April 17, 1995, the Government modified the payment of the Special Duty Allowance and Special Compensatory (Remote Locality) Allowance as under:

"The Defence Civilian employees, serving in the newly defined modified Field Areas, will continue to be entitled to the Special Compensatory (Remote Locality) Allowance and other allowances as admissible to Defence Civilians, as hitherto, under existing instructions issued by this Ministry from time to time. However, in respect of Defence Civilian employees in the newly defined Field Areas, Special Compensatory (Remote Locality) Allowance and other allowances, not concurrently admissible along with Field Service Concessions."

It is contended by Mr. P.P. Malhotra, learned senior counsel appearing for the Union of India, that the view taken by the Tribunal that they are entitled to both, is not correct and that they would be entitled to either of the allowances. Shri P.P. Rao, learned senior counsel appearing for some of the respondents has contended that those civilian employees working in the defence service at various stations in the North-eastern region were given Special Duty Allowance with a view to attract the competent persons and the persons having been deployed, are entitled to the same and the amended concessions would be applicable to those employees who are transferred after April 17, 1975. All those who were serving earlier would be entitled to both. Shri Arun Jaitely, learned senior counsel appearing for some of the respondents has drawn our attention to the distinction between Field area and Modified Field area and submitted that in cases where civilian employees are supporting the field defence persons deployed for the border operational requirements facing the immense hostilities, they will be denied the payment of both allowances while the personnel working in the Modified Field Area, in other words, in barracks, will be entitled to double benefit of both the allowance. This creates hostile discrimination and unjust results.

Having regard to the respective contentions, we are of the view that the Government having been extending the benefit of payment of Special Duty Allowance to all the defence employees working in the North-eastern region as per the orders issued by the Government from time to time as on April 17, 1995, they are entitled to both the Special Duty Allowance as well as Field Area Special Compensatory (Remote Locality) Allowance. The same came to be modified w.e.f. that date. Therefore, irrespective of the fact whether or not they have been deployed earlier to that date, all are entitled to both the allowances only upto that date. Thereafter, all the personnel whether transferred earlier to that or transferred from on or after that date, shall be entitled to payment of only one set of Special Duty Allowance in terms of the above modified order.

As regards the payment of Special Duty Allowance to the defence civilian personnel deployed at the border areas for support of operational requirement, they face the imminent hostilities supporting the army personnel deployed there. Necessarily, they alone require the double payment as ordered by the Government but they cannot be deprived of the same since they are facing imminent hostilities in hilly areas risking their lives as envisaged in the proceedings of the Army dated January 13, 1994. But the Modified Field Area, in other words, in the defence terminology, "barracks" in that area is a lesser risking area; hence they shall not be entitled to double payment. Under these circumstances, Mr. P.P. Malhotra is right in saying that the wording of the order requires modification. The Government is directed to modify the order and issue the corrigendum accordingly.

The appeals are disposed of accordingly. It is made clear that the Union of India is not entitled to recover any payments made of the period prior to April 17, 1995. No costs.

pay the above all reliefs sought by the applicants. It may be worth to mention that while granting the above reliefs to the applicants the Hon'ble Tribunal granted the relief to only the applicant named Gadadhar Bania due to some technical defect of the application.

3) That the Union of India has also filed a Special Leave petition before the Hon'ble Supreme court of India against the judgment & order passed by the Hon'ble Central Administrative Tribunal, Guwahati Bench in the above cases. The Special Leave Petition was numbered as SLP(C) 10099 to 10101 of 1997. But in this Special Leave Petition which was filed by the Union of India made parties to all the 108 (One Hundred Eight) applicants of the Original Applications which were filed before the Hon'ble Central Administrative Tribunal, Guwahati Bench. The case was contested by the all 108 applicants before the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India and the case was finally heard and disposed by the Hon'ble Supreme court on 11-08-97. The Hon'ble Supreme Court by its judgment directed the Union of India that the present appeal are fully covered by the Civil Appeal No. 1572/97 Union of India & others -Versus- B. Prasad, BSO & others. From the above Supreme Court Judgment it transpires that the Hon'ble Supreme Court granted the above allowances, that is, S.D.A., H.R.A., & S.C.A. (RL) to the all the 108 applicants of the original applicants No. 179/95, 108/95 & 181/95 filed before the Hon'ble Central Administrative Tribunal by the Defence Civilian Employees.

It may be worth to mention here that similarly situated persons who are working in the same Department with my client are already enjoying the above allowances except my client and 107 others. This amounts a serious injustice to my clients who are working in the place but they are deprive from their legitimate due of payment of the above allowances.

4) That inspite of this direction given by the Hon'ble Supre Court of India you have deliberately not yet (contd.)

5) That my client and other applicants have requested the Union of India through proper channel to implement the Hon'ble Supreme Court Judgment but till today you have deliberately violated, dis-obeyed and dishonoured the Hon'ble Court's order by not paying the above allowances to my client and others and as such all the Respondents including yourself are liable for contempt of court.
