O R D E R

By Hon'ble Mr. Gokul Chandra Pati, Member – A

Shri S.M.A. Naqvi, learned counsel for the applicant and Shri Rajeshwar Singh, learned counsel for the respondents are present.

2. The Applicant has challenged the order dated 15.06.2018 passed by the Appellate Authority in the OA and he has not filed any revision application in the matter. Since the revision has been specifically provided under Rule 29 of the CCS (CCA) Rules, 1965, the applicant has not availed the alternative remedy.

3. As the applicant has not availed the alternative remedy, the OA is not maintainable before this Tribunal. However, in the interest of justice, the applicant is granted liberty to file revision application before the Competent Authority, and if the revision application is filed within a week of this order, it shall be disposed of by the Competent Authority as per rule treating it to be within time as per the rules. OA is disposed of at this stage accordingly. No cost.
