Shri M.K. Even prior to this communication, vide letter dated 26.06.2015, the applicant was informed about the payment of 50% dues which inter alia include the dues upto 26.06.2015 amounting to Rs.5,93,558. Now by virtue of the letter dated 13.04.2017, the entire wages, as per the directions of the Hon'ble Supreme Court, have been paid.

2. The only direction of this Tribunal was for setting aside the compulsory retirement without any wages. Ultimately, the applicant succeeded before the Hon'ble Supreme Court and 100% wages have been ordered to be paid. As noticed in the last order, all wages already stand paid.
