ORDER (ORAL)By Mr. V. Ajay Kumar, Member (J)

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner.

2. When this CP is taken up for hearing, the learned counsel for the petitioner submits that since certain documents were already filed along with the O.A., the applicant has not furnished the same once again to the respondents, though they have directed him to furnish the same in order to comply with the orders of this Tribunal. However, he submits that he will advise the applicant to furnish whatever documents pertaining to his service during the period from 1985 to 2002 are available with him, to the respondents.

3. Accordingly, the CP is closed by giving liberty to the applicant to furnish all the information and documents available with him, under due acknowledgement to the respondents. No costs.
