O R D E R (ORAL)

Dr. K.B. Suresh:

It appears that the applicant had been granted a favourable order for consideration of his grievances, which he had highlighted in his representation and on which the respondents have passed Annexure A-10 order dated 06.02.2013. Apparently, in paragraph 5 of the said order, it is mentioned that the matter is under examination but there seems to be some conflict in decision, as in the subsequent paragraphs, it is mentioned that the applicant is no longer in Civil Defence Department. We do not know how it came to be there whether by his own volition or by compulsion. However, if at all any prejudice is caused, he must have a chance to represent against that.

2. Therefore, we will permit the applicant to file a comprehensive representation to the respondents, within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, which may be considered by the respondents within two months next and speaking order issued. We, however, reserve the right of the applicant to challenge the action, if it is against him.

3. The O.A. is accordingly disposed of. No costs.
