ORDER (Oral)

Justice M.S. Sullar Member (J):

As is evident from the record that the applicant has initially instituted this Original Application (OA) as back as on 03.03.2013 in this Tribunal. Thereafter, the case was repeatedly adjourned on one pretext or the other attributable to the applicant.

2. Ultimately, the OA was adjourned for today for arguments. Today, again, nobody is appearing on behalf of the applicant, despite repeated calls, to argue this old OA, so we have no option but to dismiss the same in default.

4. Therefore, the OA is hereby dismissed in default on account of non-prosecution. No costs.
