ORDER (ORAL)

By Mr. V. Ajay Kumar, Member (J)

Heard both the sides.

2. This O.A. has been filed by stating that the applicants were working as Daily Wage employees under the respondents and their services are going to be terminated by the respondents.

3. Shri Amit Anand, learned counsel for the respondents, on instructions, submits that the applicants are, in fact, being continued even as on today in the same capacity and, hence, no cause of action for the O.A. survives.

4. In the circumstances and in view of the categorical submission made by the learned counsel for the respondents, the O.A. is disposed of, as no further orders are necessary. All the other issues are kept open.

It is needless to mention that if the applicants have any grievance in future, they are always at liberty to avail their remedies, in accordance with law.
