3. Heard Shri Yogesh Sharma, the learned counsel for the applicants and Shri R.N. Singh, the learned counsel for the respondents and perused the pleadings on record.

4. Shri Yogesh Sharma, the learned counsel appearing for the applicants, submits that when the orders in RBE No.66/2010 dated 30.04.2010 for restructuring of the cadre of Assistant Loco Pilot are implemented, though there were sufficient vacancies available for granting the benefits to the applicants, the respondents have not granted the same till 24.07.2014 and 28.10.2014, as the case may be, and since sufficient vacancies were available as on 30.04.2010 and since the applicants were eligible for the benefits under the RBE as on the said date, the applicants are entitled from the said date. The learned counsel alternatively submits that if for any valid reason, the respondents treat that the applicants were not eligible for the benefits of RBE 66/2010 w.e.f. 30.04.2010, and not granted the benefits under RBE No.66/2010 with effect from the date of issue of the said proceedings, i.e. 30.04.2010, they ought to have granted the same at least with effect from the date on which the applicants became eligible for granting the same.

5. Shri R.N. Singh, the learned counsel appearing for the respondents, while drawing our attention to the counter filed on behalf of the respondents, submits that as per restructuring of Senior Assistant Loco Pilots, the existing strength was 416 and revised strength was 1110 and the difference between revised sanctioned strength and existing sanctioned strength was 694 (i.e. 1110-416) and, hence, the benefit was due only for 694 persons who were working at that time, i.e. on 01.05.2010, and were eligible on the said date.

6. It is further submitted that since the applicants were regularly appointed in the years 2009 and 2010, they have not fulfilled the eligibility condition of two years residency period in the lower grade of Rs.1900/- and, hence, they were not due for the benefits w.e.f. 01.05.2010. However, on fulfilling the conditions, all applicants were given the benefits as Senior Assistant Loco Pilots in the Grade Pay of Rs.2400/- vide Office Order dated 05.06.2014 and 08.10.2014 (Annexures R-6 and R-8, respectively).

7. It is the specific case of the applicants that as the applicants were eligible for granting all the benefits under RBE No.66/2010 on 30.04.2010, i.e. the date of issue of the RBE, granting the same w.e.f. 24.07.2014 and 28.10.2014 by the respondents is illegal.

8. Admittedly, as stated by the respondents themselves, that the applicants become eligible for the benefits under RBE 66/2010, once they complete 2 years period in the lower grade of Rs.1900/- and if vacancies are available for them, and that all the applicants completed the said 2 years' period much prior to 24.07.2014 and 28.10.2014, as the case may be. But it is seen that either from the counter filed by the respondents or from the impugned order dated 15.02.2015 whereunder the respondents rejected the representations of the applicants, it is not forthcoming whether there were sufficient vacancies available to promote the applicants with effect from the dates on which they became eligible for granting the benefits and, if so, what are the reasons for not granting them the benefits with effect from the said dates. In the absence of the same, it is not possible for us to give any finding on that aspect.

9. Since the impugned Annexure A/1 dated 11.02.2015, which was passed in reply to the representations of the applicants, does not disclose reasons of any sort and the same is a non-speaking order, we are of the view that the O.A. be disposed of with a direction to the respondents to reconsider the representations of the applicants keeping in view the above observations and to pass a speaking order with regard to availability of vacancies and the entitlement of the applicants from the date of their fulfilment of the eligibility criteria for conferment of the benefits under RBE No.66/2010.

10. In the circumstances, the impugned Annexure A/1 dated 11.02.2015 is quashed and the respondents are directed to reconsider Annexures A/7 and A/8 representations of the applicants and to pass appropriate speaking and reasoned orders thereon, keeping in view the above observations, in accordance with law, within 90 days from the date of receipt of a certified copy of this order. Accordingly, the O.A. is disposed of. No order as to costs.
