Hon'ble Mr. Justice Syed Rafat Alam, Chairman :

- “(a) Direct the respondents to consider the name of the Applicant for grant of PB-3 with AGP of Rs.6000 w.e.f. 13.01.2011 and further consider the name of the Applicant for grant of Lecturer (Senior Scale) (i.e. PB-3 with AGP of Rs.7000) w.e.f. September, 2012 (the date on which the Applicant completed her M.Sc. (Interior Design) and if the Applicant is declared/found ‘FIT’ by the screening/selection committee, then she should be granted PB-3 with AGP of Rs.6000 w.e.f. 13.01.2011 with all consequential benefits viz. arrears, seniority etc. and should also be granted Lecturer (Senior Scale) (i.e. PB-3 with AGP of Rs.7000) w.e.f. September, 2012 with all consequential benefits viz. arrears of salary, compound interest @ 18% per annum on arrears of the salary, promotion, seniority etc. And
- (b) Award cost in favour of the Applicant and against the respondents. And/or
- (c) Pass any further order, which this Hon’ble Tribunal may deem fit, just equitable in the facts and circumstances of the case.”

2. Learned counsel for the applicant vehemently contended that the applicant fulfils all the conditions for grant of selection grade in PB-3 with AGP of Rs.6000 w.e.f. 13.01.2011 and again PB-3 with AGP of Rs.7000 w.e.f. September, 2012, yet the respondents have not taken any decision to give the benefit of the aforesaid scale though persons junior to him have already been granted the same vide order dated 05.12.2013. He further submitted that despite several representations which are enclosed as Annexure A-1 colly and reminder dated 21.09.2015, the respondents have not taken any decision.

3. When the matter was taken up yesterday as a fresh one, learned counsel for the respondents was asked to seek instructions in the matter as to whether the aforesaid representation of the applicant can be disposed of or not. Learned counsel, on instructions from the respondents, states that the aforesaid representation would be examined and final decision would be taken expeditiously, preferably within a period of four weeks.

4. In view of the above, we are of the view that no purpose would be served by keeping the matter further pending. Therefore, it would be appropriate to dispose of this Application at this stage with direction to the respondents/concerned authority to examine the grievance of the applicant made through the aforesaid representation and take appropriate decision in accordance with law expeditiously, by recording reasons, preferably within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order. It is made clear that we have not expressed any opinion on merit of the case as at the first instance it is to be decided by the respondents.

5. With the above order, this Application stands finally disposed of.
