ORDER (ORAL)

Ms. Nita Chowdhury :

When the CP is taken up for hearing, learned counsel for respondents states that the respondents have complied with the order dated 27.07.2016 passed in OA No. 768/2016 and have considered the case of the petitioner for appointment from the point of view of educational qualifications, which was the subject matter of the OA and from that point of view, they find her qualified. Accordingly, respondents have complied fully with the order of the Tribunal.

2. In view of the substantial compliance in the matter, the CP is closed. Notices issued to the respondents stand discharged. However, if the petitioner wishes to seek any other relief, he is given liberty to avail his remedies, as advised.
