This Original Application having been heard on 14.11.2018, the Tribunal on the same day delivered the following in open court:

O R D E R (ORAL)

This present Original Application has been filed by the applicant praying therein a declaration of 50% of the Casual Labour Service put in by the applicant which is followed by his regularization in service are eligible and entitled to be reckoned for the purpose of pension along with his regular service and for his retiral benefits.

2. Brief facts of the case are that the applicant has joined the Railway Service as casual labour from 4.10.1972 till 28.1.1983. He has worked a total number of 29 years as per Annexure A1. Applicant has made a representations to the respondents for computing the period of earlier service which he had put in with the department since 4.10.1972 to 28.1.1983 but in vain. The department has given pension only on the basis of 29 years qualifying service without taking into consideration of earlier casual labour service.

3. Notices were issued. Respondents put up their appearance and filed detailed reply statement. The department has granted pension on the basis of qualifying service of 29 years. It is contended that the applicant has not produced any original casual labour cards to the respondents in order to implement the order passed by the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of Union of India v. Rakesh Kumar & Ors.

4. Heard the parties at length and perused the records.

5. On perusal of the judgement of the Hon'ble Apex Court in UOI vs. Rakesh Kumar & ors. there is no doubt that the 50% of the casual labour service is to be reckoned for the purpose of pensionary benefits. But the respondents' only objection is the non production of the original casual labour card which according to the learned counsel for the applicant has already been submitted to the respondents.

6. The applicant is given two weeks time to produce all the necessary proof of submitting the original casual labour card to the respondents and the respondents shall decide the grant of 50% of the casual labour service in terms of Hon'ble Apex Court judgement in the case of Rakesh Kumar (supra) within 90 days from the date of receipt of a proof of submission of labour card and other relevant documents by the applicant.

7. With this observation, O.A. stands disposed of. No order as to costs.
