ORDER (ORAL)

Ms. Nita Chowdhury, Member (A):

Counsel for the applicant is present and insists that there is a contempt in this matter because there is a delay in issue of the appointment order of the applicant which has, in fact, been issued on 10.08.2018 and according to him, should have been issued earlier.

2. In view of the above, there is a substantial compliance of the order of this Tribunal and no case for contempt is made out. The CP is accordingly closed. Notice issued to the respondent is discharged. However, applicant is at liberty to seek legal remedy available to her, if so advised, in accordance with law. No costs.
