O R D E R (BY CIRCULTION)HON'BLE DR K.B. SURESH, MEMBER(J)

The matter is settled by circulation. When an income is calculated, if there is a stipulation that in about 2 or 3 years' time the income will be substantially reduced, then some credence ought to be granted to it. When indigence is calculated, it is not that the concerned person should be in a starvation level. It is only that he must be within the parameters of consideration. It is particularly so, for not only on one element of consideration, other elements of consideration, points have not been granted. Numerical points system is upheld only because of transparency it attained.

2. It appears there is no ground for review. RA is therefore dismissed. No costs.
