ORDER (ORAL)

DR. K.B. SURESH, MEMBER (J):

Heard. The matter is related to compassionate appointment of a married daughter of a medically unfit widow. There are only two persons in the family and because the daughter is married the Railways had not considered her. Now, under the Hindu Law and the cogent laws in this regard, the responsibility of a Putra and Putri are different. Therefore a married man can be ipso facto denied appointment under compassionate scheme because for the very simple reason that before he marries he is expected to be able to look after himself. If a man is able to look after himself, then he has no right to seek compassionate appointment.

2. The Railways have taken a view that the applicant's daughter being married she is under the care of her husband and therefore may not need the special merit to be granted under compassionate appointment scheme, but it may lead the widow indigent and without a caregiver. Therefore we will set aside the order passed by the Railways regarding the non-consideration of the applicant and will remit the matter for an effective consideration on these grounds:

- 1) Can the widow survive without effective support,
- 2) What is their level of indigency vis-à-vis with the others who is equally considered

- 3) What is the current status of the husband of the daughter? Is he in a position to look after the mother-in-law also which is also a pious obligation under law?

3. All these and other cogent issues will be looked into by the Railways and an appropriate order may be passed. The OA is disposed off. No order as to costs.
