O R D E R (ORAL)

Heard. The issue is in a very small compass. The applicant got admitted to PG Course as an outsider and subsequently got employment in the Tamil Nadu Government. The Tamil Nadu Government permitted the applicant to continue in the course and granted Extra Ordinary Leave without pay. While she was so engaged as an outsider earlier, she had been paid stipend according to rules. Now the rules do not prescribe stipend to be paid to in-service candidate, who is on EOL.

2. We do not think that we can create a law, since the law is silent on the subject and elements of it are also seem to be against the applicant. This stipend is paid apparently by an institute in a particular cause so that, apparently under the fond belief that these people will enure to that particular geographical society the benefit thereof. But the applicant is an employee of another State and that belief seems to be shattered, even though the Institute is a national Institute. In other words, we do not find any reason to carry our judicial discretion so forward, as pertinent elements are lacking in the cause of the applicant. Her extra ordinary leave is no prejudice to her as all other benefits will be available to her including seniority. Therefore, there is no equity on her side to claim along with outsider.

3. Therefore, I find no reason to burden the Institute with the burden of payment of stipend to the applicant. Therefore, extraordinary discretion cannot be utilized. That being so, no merit.

4. OA dismissed. No order as to costs.
