(By Advocate Shri V.V. Balan )

O R D E R (ORAL)

HON'BLE DR. K.B. SURESH, MEMBER(J)

1.                   Heard. In this Review application the only ground raised is the word consent of the learned counsel must be removed. It is not the question of consent on any material point. But, only that facts of that particular case and the Madras case were similar. There is no case even now by the review applicants that the facts in this case and facts of the other cases are dissimilar. But, at that point of time, that was consented also. That being so, Review application will not lie. The view is that a new wisdom had dawned on the client. Hence, we had asked to spell out the dissimilarities, if any. The counsel could not point out any. The word officer and a gentle man is a term which all must remember.
2.                   Review application is dismissed. No order as costs.
