O R D E R (ORAL)

(HON'BLE DR. K.B. SURESH, MEMBER (J))

Heard. The matter is in a very small compass. Apparently the applicant was caught red-handed through the process of Lokayukta with a significant amount with her which she was apparently unable to explain. At this point of time, we do not want to go into the merits of the matter as the matter is now pending in a Criminal Trial Court. But somehow or other the applicant was provisionally included in a list of officers to be promoted in the IAS even though in the normal course of things she could not have been given the vigilance clearance. We therefore hold that the people who have included her name in the list, even though she could not have been given vigilance clearance that time, at fault. We therefore direct the Secretary, DoPT and the Secretary for the UPSC to take a very serious note of this.

2. But at the same time if the applicant comes out of the entire issue after the conclusion of the criminal trial and the possible appeal and the departmental inquiry to be followed under the guidance of the judgment of the Hon'ble Apex Court in R.K. Dhawan's case then, without any doubt, the applicant will be eligible for all the benefits which were held away from her during the interregnum of this. But till the criminal trial and the possible appeal have been exhausted and concluded in favour of the applicant and given an honourable acquittal or/and the disciplinary inquiry find that the applicant is clear of any doubt whatsoever the applicant cannot be allowed to have the benefit of a provisional selection and in fact the provisional selection in the list itself is illegal and opposed to the law of the land. The DoPT Secretary as well as the UPSC Secretary will look into this matter and do what is necessary.

3. But needless to say after the conclusion of all these if the applicant emerges as innocent then with retrospective effect all the benefits notionally must be made available to her. With this direction, the OA is disposed of. No order as to costs.
