....Respondents

(By Shri M. Rajakumar, Senior Central Government Counsel)

O R D E R (ORAL)

(HON'BLE DR. K.B. SURESH, MEMBER (J))

The matter is in a very small compass. The respondent files reply and says thus:

“ii. The Respondents also submit to the Hon'ble Court that the Respondents No. 1 may be allowed to re-examine the procedures followed in allotment of quarters by the Veterinary Officer (Respondent No. 2). The list of quarters which are livable and readily available for allotment will be freshly prepared and suitable actions will be initiated to allot such quarters to the employees following due procedures

Therefore Respondents respectfully prays to this Hon'ble Tribunal may please to consider this short reply statement of the department and vacate the interim order dated 15.12.2017 by giving liberty to re-examine the procedures followed in allotment of quarters by the Veterinary Officer Respondent No. 2 and the list of quarters which are livable and readily available for allotment will be freshly prepared and suitable actions will be initiated to allot such quarters to the employees following due procedures, in the interest of justice and equity.”

2. Therefore, there is no need now for the matter to be kept pending. We hold that the applicants are entitled to livable quarters or the HRA as the case may be. For the period for which livable quarters are not given, they will be eligible for HRA. Anyway the respondents are given the right, on the request made in the reply, to re-look into the matter and grant livable quarters to all the applicants. Till then they will be eligible for HRA after which they will not be eligible for HRA.

3. The OA is disposed of as above. No order as to costs.
