ORDER (ORAL)

HON'BLE DR K.B.SURESH, MEMBER (J)

Heard. Both sides agreed and the respondents had gracefully filed a memo indicating that the facts in this case and the facts of the case in Madras Bench are exactly similar which culminated in Writ Petition No. 44421/2016 of the Hon'ble High Court of Madras dated 13.03.2017 which was following the order in OA No. 1756/2016 of the Madras Bench. Therefore we hold that the applicants are entitled to the extent of the same benefit to be extended to them also. Therefore the interim order is withdrawn for doing the needful by the respondents. Therefore the sealed cover will be opened and apparently what is required under law may be done provided the concerned persons have passed the examination. This may be done within four months' time. OA is disposed of. No order as to costs.
