ORDER (ORAL)

DR. K.B. SURESH, MEMBER (J):

Heard. It is submitted that the order is vitiated by opposition of facts and circumstances. We have carefully gone through the order and find that it is not so. Apparently the applicant in OA No. 394/2014 had claimed for 10% interest but then the Hon'ble High Court of Karnataka had maintained that in cases like this 15% of interest would be applicable. Therefore there may not be anything wrong in this portion of the order as well. The other ground taken is that particularly in the case of the original applicant 15% of interest had not been made available by the Hon'ble High Court but the principle remain the same. Therefore we find that there is no ground for the RA.

2. Therefore finding that there is no merit in the RA, RA is dismissed. No order as to costs.
