- iv) That the cost of application may also be awarded in favour of the applicant."

2. After completion of pleadings, the case came up for hearing today.

3. The facts are not in dispute.

4. Learned counsel for the respondents themselves came up with the judgment passed by this court in case of Inder Mohan Kaur and others versus Chandigarh Administration and others, in OA No.060/00163/2017 decided on 09.07.2018, and submitted that since the contention of the applicant was noticed on the first date of hearing, that this case involved similar issue, and as such petition deserves to be dispose of, in terms of said decision.

5. Learned counsel for the applicant submitted that this petition deserves to be disposed of in terms of Inder Mohan Kaur (supra), with a further directions to the respondents to consider her claim for release of higher wages for the period when she discharged higher duty of higher post also, when she worked on the higher post. The other side could not raise any objection to the proposed decision.

6. Therefore, we dispose of the present OA in the above terms for the parity of reasons given in the case of Inder Mohan Kaur (supra), and the respondents are also under direction to consider the claim of the applicant for grant of higher wages as well, within two months. No costs.
