For the Respondent(s): None

ORDER (ORAL)

Per: Ms. Bidisha Banerjee, Judicial Member:

Ld. counsel for the applicants is present. None appears for the respondents despite service. Therefore, Rule 16(1) of the Central Administrative Tribunal (Procedure) Rules, 1987 is invoked.

2. M.A. 350/91/2018 filed under Rule 4(5)(a) of Central Administrative Tribunal (Procedure) Rules, 1987, is allowed and disposed of.

3. The applicant Smt. Malati Goswami is the mother of Late Ardhendu Goswami who got appointed to the post of clerk cum typist and subsequently promoted to the post of Accountant under the Principal Accountant General (A&E), Assam, Guwahati. Unfortunately, he suffered from Cerebritis (T.P-Region) and died on 17.09.2012, since then, the applicant Smt. Malati Goswami, the mother of the deceased employee, has been praying for employment assistance in favour of her second son, Sri Girija Goswami, the brother of the deceased. Although the death benefits of the employee have been received by the family, the representations of the applicants have not been answered to by the respondents.

4. Since no fruitful purpose would be served by asking for reply in the matter, in view of the fact that the Respondents have not considered the prayer of the deceased employee's mother, the O.A. is disposed of with a direction upon the Respondent No. 3 or any other competent authority to consider the grievance of the applicant in accordance with law and to pass a reasoned and speaking order within a period of 3 months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. In case nothing stands in the way, the respondents/competent authority shall pass appropriate order in favour of the applicants. No costs.
