ORDER (ORAL)

Not on board. However, taken up on board on mention being made by the Applicant Shri. Bhaskar H. Paunikar with regard to his OA No.160/2016, challenging the nature of promotion orders given to him at that point of time as Senior Tax Assistant. Now, according to the applicant, respondents have issued revised order of promotion as STA and he wish to challenge based on new issues contained in these orders which differs from the issues he had challenging in the previous application. He, therefore, requests to withdraw his previous OA with permission to file fresh OA on the fresh and relevant cause of action.

2. In the circumstances, the applicant is permitted to withdraw his application and the OA is dismissed as withdrawn with the condition that the previous areas of cause of action shall not be revisited in the new application and without considering, at the present moment, aspects of limitation that may affect the original application and consequently, the new application proposed to be filed. No costs.
