By Advocate: Shri N.P. Singh

Versus

Shri Rajiv Chaudhry, General Manager, North Central Railway, Allahabad.

..... Respondents

O R D E R

Delivered by Hon'ble Ms. Ajanta Dayalan, Member (A)

Shri N.P. Singh, Advocate is present for the applicant.

2. Counsel for the applicant states that in spite of direction of this Tribunal dated 11.10.2018, the order of the Tribunal has not been complied with though he has represented to the respondents on 11.11.2018.

3. We have seen the order dated 11.10.2018 passed by this Tribunal by which OA was partly allowed. However, in the said order, specific time has not been mentioned to comply with the order of this Tribunal.

4. Heard counsel for the applicant. Since, the applicant has moved this Contempt Petition after expiry of only two months from the date of passing of order, therefore, the present contempt petition is not maintainable and is liable to be dismissed. At this stage, counsel for the applicant stated that he will be satisfied if respondents may be directed to decide his representation dated 11.11.2018 made by the applicant for compliance of order of this Tribunal dated 11.10.2018.

5. In view of the submission made by counsel for the applicant, we dismiss the present contempt petition at this stage. However, in the interest of justice, we expect the respondents to take a decision on the application dated 11.11.2018 made by the applicant for compliance of order dated 11.10.2018 passed by this Tribunal.
