ORDER (ORAL)

(PER HON'BLE DR.K.B.SURESH, MEMBER (J))

The point in White Washer's judgment and other similar issues is that for a small amount the poorest of the poor should not be prejudicially affected. The applicant was getting a pay of Rs.980/- which the respondents sought to change to Rs.965/- and to modulate the pension in accordance with that. We do not want to say anything more about the cost of the governance and the way in which the costs are modulated in governance. We will say following the salutary principles of those judgments, the poorest of the poor cannot be prejudicially affected. The RA lacks merit and hence dismissed. No costs.
